Council of Ministers of Education, Canada

The Council of Ministers of Education, Canada (CMEC), created in 1967, provides the ministers responsible for education in the provinces and territories with a mechanism for consultation on educational matters of mutual interest and concern, facilitates cooperation among the provinces and territories on a broad range of activities at the elementary, secondary, and postsecondary levels. CMEC Secretariat offices are located in Toronto.

Funds for the School Achievement Indicators Program have been provided by participating jurisdictions through the Council of Ministers of Education, Canada, and by the Government of Canada through the Applied Research Branch of Human Resources Development Canada.
