

David Robinowitch - Clip 1

There is no prescription to experiencing my work

“It's important that any viewer of my work realize that there is no prescription for experiencing it. And there is also no special knowledge required.”

“I have never made works in terms of sculptural challenges or solution to problems. To discuss certain strategies would indicate that the work is to be seen in these terms and not for what it offers directly to an observer.”

