

David Robinowitch - Clip 7

Industrial process

“ The industrial process has never modified any decisions I have made. I've been very fortunate to run into people that have had the capacity to take on the more difficult fabrications that were required. This is particularly true of the Wood Constructions.”

