

Complete this schedule, and attach it to your Form RC66, Canada Child Benefits Application, if you or your spouse or common-law partner:

- became a new resident or returned as a resident of Canada in the last 2 years;
- became a Canadian citizen in the last 12 months; or
- are, as defined in the Immigration and Refugee Protection Act, a permanent resident, protected person (refugee), or temporary resident who has lived in Canada for the previous 18 months.

Note: If your application includes a period that started more than 11 months ago, you must attach to this schedule proof of your and your spouse or common-law partner's status for that period.

Other (specify):

Part D – Statement of income

Complete this part if you or your spouse or common-law partner became a new resident of Canada or returned as a resident of Canada.

Enter all income in Canadian dollars from all sources inside and outside Canada. Do not include income that you, your spouse or common-law partner have reported on a Canadian tax return. If you had no income, enter "0".

Step 1: Enter the year that you became a resident of Canada. Also, enter your income and that of your spouse or common-law partner from January 1 to the date you both became residents in that year. If your spouse or common-law partner did not become a resident of Canada in this year, leave that Income box blank. You will need to report his or her income for this year on Form CTB9, Canada Child Tax Benefit – Statement of Income, early in the following year, when it is known.

Year	You Income (dollars only)	Your spouse or common-law partner Income (dollars only)
	$	$

Step 2: Enter one year before the year that you entered in Step 1, and enter your income and that of your spouse or common-law partner for that year.

Year	You Income (dollars only)	Your spouse or common-law partner Income (dollars only)
	$	$

Go to Step 3 only if you became a resident of Canada from January to May inclusive (in the year you entered in Step 1).

Step 3: Enter two years before the year that you entered in Step 1, and enter your income and that of your spouse or common-law partner for that year.

Year	You Income (dollars only)	Your spouse or common-law partner Income (dollars only)
	$	$

You and your spouse or common-law partner must each file a Canadian tax return for the period after you became residents of Canada. If your spouse or common-law partner is a non-resident of Canada during any part of the year, you will have to complete Form CTB9, Canada Child Tax Benefit – Statement of Income, for each year or part of a year he or she is a non-resident of Canada.
