I live and work in Berlin

My name is Thomas Demand and I was born in Munich in 1964. I studied in Munich at the Academy there and went to Dusseldorf from there to study at the Conservatory of Dusseldorf, and then I went to London, did my MA at Goldsmith and from there I went to a place in the Netherlands, studied there a while and then from there I went to New York and to Paris and finally ended up in Berlin where I'm living now.
