

Thomas Demand - Clip 4

I became a visual artist

I never thought about anything else, I never considered doing anything else at all and it's not even like something I knew that I'd become an artist. I just, you know, I didn't want to be a driver of a locomotive or anything else. It was pretty clear from the beginning.

