

James Rosenquist - Clip 3

Discrimination: “Some stupid kind of fear of people”

I work and live in Florida and I've encountered racial discrimination by some hard-core hateful people, and then I see other parts disappearing. I mean other people; it's generations...it goes away. It's so complicated. It seems like some stupid kind of fear of people.

