

No theories – but a belief in life

Rita Letendre – Clip 13

Theory...I don't think soI believe in life and I ...for meand some people tell me, you know, because now I'm --- such... an older lady...they say are you still painting?....I say naturally...I'm alive so that's about as much theory as there can be with me and you see I..I just do the way I feel so that's why I can chat a million words a minute because....you know I just feel free and so that's why I can chat...tell all sorts of things ... can tell you story about my walking on a bridge....tell me.
