5.5.12.2 Where the full interest of a First Nation in its First Nation land was expropriated, but is no longer required by Canada for the purpose for which it was expropriated, the land shall be returned to the First Nation on terms negotiated by the First Nation and Canada at the time of the expropriation or at a later date as agreed to by the parties.

5.5.12.3 Where the terms and conditions of the return cannot be agreed upon by the First Nation and Canada then either party may refer the issue to arbitration under Dispute Resolution.
