CAREER OPPORTUNITY

February 4, 2008

Financial Applications Analyst Systems Analyst Level 1 - 2

Alberta Investment Management Corporation, Edmonton - Can you meet the challenge of working in a high energy, fast-paced IT environment, providing support for Investment Managers responsible for managing over $70 billion?

Alberta Investment Management Corporation (AIMCo) is seeking two service-oriented systems professionals to join our team of analysts in Investment & Debt Information Systems. Under the direction of a manager, you will work within AIMCo's information technology guidelines to provide superior application maintenance, development, and desktop support services to a variety of stakeholders. Working in our fast-paced environment you will participate in a variety of projects: such as defining business requirements; designing specifications; developing; testing; implementing; and documenting solutions. Your clients rely on your IT expertise to answer questions, provide training, and resolve software and system issues. In addition, you will participate in a number of special projects to develop and support evolving business processes within AIMCo. Our ideal candidate will have a good understanding of application development practices, knowledge of basic investment finance concepts and experience supporting investment management applications. Superior interpersonal, customer service and written skills are essential.

Qualifications: Completion of a University degree or Technical Diploma in Computing plus several years of related experience using MS/.NET development tools, MS-SQL Server and report delivery tools. Experience supporting investment management applications is desirable. Completion of the Canadian Securities Course would be considered an asset. Equivalencies will be considered. Candidates not meeting the experience requirements may be considered at a lower level.

NOTE: Final candidates will be asked to undergo a security screening.

AIMCo invests more than $70 billion, held in a number of public sector pension, endowment and special purpose funds. Formerly the Alberta government's investment operations, this organization has a long history of providing strong and consistent investment returns to its public sector clients. AIMCo was formed as a crown corporation on January 1, 2008 to provide the best structure from which to aim even higher and to deliver on its mission to establish investment excellence.
