

24/7 Emergency Shelters

Emergency shelters across the province will be open around the clock to provide better services to the homeless to help them gain employment and connect with the supports they require.

► Related successes over the past year

The Emergency Shelter Program was expanded, converting about 300 seasonal, cold/wet weather beds to year-round beds, raising the number of year-round beds to about 1,300 across the province.