Meeting the Needs of Albertans

Few in society are immune to the harmful effects of substance abuse and gambling problems. Whether it be a difficulty that is felt personally, or that of a family member or friend, alcohol, other drug and gambling problems are a challenge that most people will face at one time or another.

The Alberta Alcohol and Drug Abuse Commission is responsible for helping Albertans deal with their problems.

If you would like to help us in this work, the following options for gifts are available:

1. The AADAC Memorial Trust Fund

The AADAC Memorial Trust Fund was established in response to public interest in providing support to the Commission by way of memorial gifts. These funds are used to support initiatives not otherwise funded through AADAC Programs and Services. Any administrative costs incurred are paid by AADAC.

- a Generally gifts go directly to special Memorial Trust Fund Projects, such as special education or research activities.
- b To honour Barb Tarbox for her dedication and to continue her work, AADAC will accept designated donations made in Barb Tarbox's name. All gifts will be used to fund the Barb Tarbox Award of Excellence and Scholarship Fund or other tobacco prevention, cessation and information/public awareness projects directed at children and youth, in accordance with Barb's wishes.

2. AADAC Programs and Services

Any funds donated to AADAC programs will be used to purchase special items or materials that will directly help those most in need.

Your tax deductible contribution, payable to the AADAC Memorial Trust Fund or to AADAC and accompanied by this Donor Request Form may be made at any AADAC office in the province or sent to:
