

Freedom of Information & Protection of Privacy Act ("FOIPPA")

HOW TO FILE A COMPLAINT TO A PUBLIC BODY

The FOIPPA gives the public a right to file a complaint with the Information and Privacy Commissioner about any of the following:

- ⇒ A duty required by the Act has not been performed
- ⇒ An extension of time for responding to a request is not in accordance with the Act
- ⇒ A correction request was refused without justification
- ⇒ A fee required is inappropriate
- ⇒ Personal information has been inappropriately collected, used or disclosed by a public body
- ⇒ A search for records was not adequate

It is the policy of the OIPC to defer investigating a complaint if the complainant has not first given the public body an opportunity to respond to and attempt to resolve the issue. To help the public body address your concerns, we recommend you complete this form and give it to the public body. Once you have had a response from the public body, if you remain dissatisfied you may wish to contact the OIPC who will then consider whether further action is necessary.
