

Board Appointment

Nova Scotia Business Inc. (NSBI) Chair Doug Hall and the Honourable Angus MacIsaac, Minister of Economic Development, are pleased to announce the appointment of Lois Dyer Mann to NSBI's Board of Directors.

Lois, a member of the Nova Scotia Barristers' Society and former Partner with executive search firm Caldwell Partners International Inc., is a recognized business leader and community volunteer. She has served on numerous boards of directors and committees, including past chair and former director of Trade Centre Limited, past chair of the Metropolitan Halifax Chamber of Commerce, past trustee of IWK Health Centre, and past member of Saint Mary's University Business School Advisory Board. Lois' experience will be a great asset.

Nova Scotia Business Inc. is the province's private sector-led business development agency. NSBI helps businesses in Nova Scotia meet their growth potential through advisory services, trade development and business financing, and also attracts new investment to our communities.
