PART II
REGULATIONS

EC2002-564

FREEDOM OF INFORMATION

(Approved by His Honour the Lieutenant Governor in Council dated 1 October 2002.)

Pursuant to section 77 of the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (No. 2) Stats. P.E.I. 2001, c.37, Council made the following regulations:

INTERPRETATION

1. (1) In these regulations “Act” means the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act Stats. P.E.I. 2001, c.37. Act

(2) For the purposes of subclause 1(k)(ii) of the Act, an agency, board, commission, corporation, office or other body listed in Schedule 1 is designated as a public body. Public body, designation

REQUESTS FOR ACCESS TO RECORDS

2. (1) Public bodies shall make public in a reasonable manner Making requests - offices, addresses and methods
 (a) the addresses of all offices authorized to receive requests made to the public body; and
 (b) the various methods by which those offices can receive requests.

(2) A request may be delivered to any office of the public body during normal business hours of that office, but the time limit for responding to the request does not commence until the request is received in an office authorized to receive requests. Delivery during normal business hours

(3) When a request is received in an office not authorized to accept it, that office shall, as soon as possible, forward it to an authorized office. Transfer of request

3. Where a person has asked to examine a record and is given access to the record, the head of the public body may require that the person be given a copy of the record, rather than the opportunity to examine it, if the head is of the opinion that Responding to a request for examination
 (a) providing for examination of the record would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body; or
 (b) providing examination of the record could reasonably be expected to result in the disclosure of information that is restricted or prohibited from disclosure under section 5 of the Act or Part 1, Division 2 of the Act.

- Oral requests 4. An applicant may make an oral request for access to a record if
- (a) the applicant's ability to read or write English or French is limited; or
 - (b) the applicant has a physical disability or condition that impairs the applicant's ability to make a written request.

DISCLOSURE OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

- Disclosure of health care information 5. (1) The head of a public body may disclose information relating to the mental or physical health of an individual to a medical or other expert for an opinion on whether disclosure of this information could reasonably be expected to result in grave and immediate harm to the individual's safety or mental or physical health.
- Use (2) A medical or other expert to whom information is disclosed under subsection (1) shall not use the information except for the purposes described in that subsection.
- Confidentiality agreement (3) The head of the public body shall require a medical or other expert to whom information will be disclosed under this section to enter into an agreement relating to the confidentiality of the information.
- Return of a copy of a record (4) If a copy of a record containing information relating to the mental or physical health of an individual is given to a medical or other expert for examination, the medical or other expert shall, after giving the opinion referred to in subsection (1), return the copy of the record to the head of the public body or dispose of it in accordance with an agreement under subsection (3).
- Examination in person and with assistance (5) The head of the public body that has custody or control of the record may require that an applicant who makes a request for access to a record containing information relating to the applicant's mental or physical health must examine the information in person, and may not examine the record until a medical or other expert or a member of the applicant's family or some other person approved by the head of the public body is present to clarify the nature of the record and to assist the applicant in understanding the information in the record.
- Consent to the disclosure of personal information 6. The consent of an individual to a public body's using or disclosing any of the individual's personal information under clauses 36(1)(b) or 37(1)(c) of the Act shall
- (a) be in writing; and
 - (b) specify to whom the personal information may be disclosed and how the personal information may be used.
- Disclosure for audit purposes 7. Personal information may be disclosed to persons who are employees of a public body, including a person retained under a contract to perform services for the public body, in order to carry out a financial or other formal and systematic examination or review of a program or activity or a portion of a program or activity that includes personal information about individuals, provided such examination or review is sanctioned by an enactment or public policy relating to the public body.

FEES

- 8. Where an applicant is required to pay a fee for services, the fee is payable in accordance with sections 9, 10, 11, and 12. Fees
- 9. (1) This section applies to a request for access to a record that is not a record of the personal information of the applicant. Fees for non-personal information

 - (2) An applicant is required to pay an initial fee of $5. Initial fee
 - (3) Processing of a request will not commence until the initial fee has been paid. Payment of initial fee
 - (4) In addition to the initial fee, fees in accordance with Schedule 2 may be charged if the amount of time spent, as estimated by the public body to which the request has been made, exceeds two hours. Schedule 2 fees
 - (5) A fee may not be charged for the time spent in reviewing a record. Review time
- 10. Where an applicant requests access to a record of the personal information of the applicant, only fees for copying in accordance with item 6 of Schedule 2 may be charged. Fees for personal information
- 11. (1) A fee estimate provided under subsection 76(3) of the Act shall be in writing and set out Fee estimate

 - (a) the time and cost required
 - (i) to search, locate and retrieve the record,
 - (ii) to prepare the record for disclosure;
 - (b) the cost of copying the record;
 - (c) the cost of computer time involved in locating and copying a record or, if necessary, re-programming to create a new record;
 - (d) the cost of supervising an applicant who wishes to examine the original record, when applicable; and
 - (e) the cost of shipping the record or a copy of the record.
 - (2) In addition to the information set out in subsection (1), a fee estimate shall include a proposed agreement, consistent with section 12, for the payment of the fee by the applicant. Proposed agreement
 - (3) A fee estimate for access to a record of the personal information of the applicant need only include the cost of copying the record. Estimate of fee for personal information
 - (4) After being given a fee estimate, an applicant has up to 20 days to indicate if the fee estimate is accepted or to modify the request to change the amount of fees assessed. Time period to accept

Payment of estimated fee	12. (1) Processing of a request ceases once a fee estimate has been given to an applicant and recommences immediately on the receipt of an agreement to pay the fee, and on the receipt of at least 50% of the estimated fee.
Balance	(2) The balance of any fee owing is payable at the time the information is delivered to the applicant.
Refund	(3) Fees, other than an initial fee, or any part of those fees, shall be refunded if the amount paid is higher than the actual fees required to be paid.

NOTICE OF DISCLOSURES

Notice of disclosure	13. For the purposes of subsection 30(4) of the Act, the notice of disclosure shall be made in the form set out in Schedule 3.
Commencement	14. These regulations come into force on November 1, 2002.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 defines certain terms used in the Act.

SECTION 2 requires public bodies to publicize the addresses of offices authorized to accept requests for access to information and states that a request may be delivered to any office of the public body, but the time limit for responding does not begin to run until the request is received by an office authorized to receive requests.

SECTION 3 enables a public body to require a person to accept a copy of a record if providing examination would unreasonably interfere with the operations of the public body or result in disclosure of information that is restricted or prohibited from disclosure.

SECTION 4 allows a person to make an oral request for information where the person has a limited ability to read or write English or French or has a physical disability that impairs his or her ability to make a written request.

SECTION 5 authorizes the head of a public body to disclose information, for the purposes of subsection 16(2) of the Act, relating to a person's physical or mental health to an expert to determine whether disclosure to the individual might result in grave and immediate harm to the individual's safety or health. Section 5 also requires the public body to enter into a confidentiality agreement with the expert to ensure the protection of the person's health information.

SECTION 6 prescribes the manner of consent to use personal information under clause 36(1)(b) and disclosure of personal information under clause 37(1)(c) of the Act.

SECTION 7 prescribes the persons to whom personal information may be disclosed for audit purposes under clause 37(1)(k) of the Act.

SECTIONS 8-12 prescribe the fees that may be charged for access to information.

SECTION 13 requires the prescribed notice of disclosure of information relating to a risk of significant harm to individual or public health or safety to be in the form of Schedule 3.

SECTION 14 provides for the effective date.

SCHEDULE 1 lists the designated public bodies to which the Act will apply.

SCHEDULE 2 outlines the fees that may be charged for access to records.

SCHEDULE 3 is the prescribed form of a notice of disclosure of information in the event of a risk of significant harm to individual or public health or safety or which is, for any other reason, clearly in the public interest.
