for cats and dogs
regulations prevail

(3) Where there is a conflict between this section and a provision of the Housing Standards for Cats and Dogs in Companion Animal Establishments Regulations (EC682/03), the provision of the Housing Standards for Cats and Dogs in Companion Animal Establishments Regulations shall prevail to the extent of the conflict.

2. These regulations come into force on December 13, 2003.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

This regulation ensures that the Housing Standards for Cats and Dogs in Companion Animal Establishments Regulations prevail over the standards prescribed by section 5 of the Companion Animal Protection Act Regulations, should a conflict arise between the two.

(i) construction materials that are used for highway construction and maintenance;

(f) by the revocation of clause (k) and the substitution of the following:

(k) supplies that the Deputy Minister of the requisitioning department considers necessary to be obtained by sole source, as documented by the Deputy Minister, for any of the following reasons:

- (i) to ensure compatibility with present supplies,
- (ii) competition is not practical for technical reasons,
- (iii) the goods or services are controlled by a statutory monopoly,
- (iv) the goods originate from a commodity market,
- (v) the work for which the goods or services is being purchased is being done on leased property,
- (vi) the work is under warranty or a maintenance contract,
- (vii) the contract is awarded to the winner of a design contest,
- (viii) for first time purchase of goods or of prototypes, but not for subsequent purchases,
- (ix) the goods are purchased at exceptionally low prices, such as in a bankruptcy situation,
- (x) the goods are original works of art,
- (xi) the goods are real property,
- (xii) the supplies are not included in the above list but, in the opinion of the Deputy Head of the requisitioning department and the Deputy Provincial Treasurer, the supplies have certain characteristics that can only be provided by one manufacturer or supplier.

(g) by the revocation of clause (l) and the substitution of the following:

- (l) goods or services of a confidential nature;

(h) by the revocation of clause (m);

(i) by the revocation of clause (n) and the substitution of the following:

- (n) goods intended for resale;

(j) by the revocation of clause (p);

(k) by the addition of the following after clause (p):

- (q) emergencies such as acts of God, furnace replacement, building collapse, but not including urgent situations resulting from lack of appropriate planning;
- (r) cooperation agreements where the organization uses different rules from those allowed for in the trade agreements;
- (s) goods or services dealing with situations that compromise security or order;
- (t) in situations where fewer than two competitive bids were received in response to a tender call;
- (u) goods or services acquired for an entity that is not covered by any trade agreement, including entities operating sporting or convention facilities, commercial entities and others approved by the Division;

- (v) procurement from philanthropic organizations, as determined by the Division;
- (w) contracts between public bodies or non-profit organizations;
- (x) representational goods or services used outside a party's territory;
- (y) goods, the interprovincial movement of which are restricted by or inconsistent with a trade agreement.

Exemption documentation

(2) Documentation satisfactory to the Division must be supplied by the Deputy Minister of the department that intends to purchase goods or services under the exemptions listed in clauses (q) to (y).

11. These regulations come into force on January 1, 2004.

EXPLANATORY NOTES

SECTION 1 adds the definition of “local purchase order” and “purchasing card” to the regulations.

SECTION 2 requires that the Comptroller be notified of purchase requisitions and allows the Minister to extend tenders for 24 months (or more at the Minister's discretion) rather than for 12 months.

SECTIONS 3 to 5 add gender-neutral references.

SECTION 6 provides for after-sales service specifications, allows departments to purchase goods between $1,500 and $5,000 with evidence of having received competitive quotations, reduces the requirement for public tender from $25,000 to $5,000, ensures compliance with interprovincial trade agreements and allows advertisements for tenders to be made in newspapers or electronically.

SECTION 7 allows for submission of tenders by facsimile.

SECTION 8 allows for the Division to require proof from a vendor of the vendor's ability to provide supplies before the Division awards a tender and allows the Division to cancel non-competitive tenders.

SECTION 9 changes the limit on local purchase orders to $500 from $250 and adds a reference to a purchasing card.

SECTION 10 updates the list of exemptions consistent with the interprovincial trade agreements.

SECTION 11 provides for the commencement of these regulations.
