COMMISSIONER SWEARS IN NEW GOVERNMENT CABINET

WHITEHORSE – Yukon Commissioner Geraldine Van Bibber today swore in the new Yukon Cabinet, headed by Premier Dennis Fentie.

“I am pleased to present to the people of Yukon, the members of this new Cabinet,” Fentie said. “On behalf of my colleagues, we are honoured and proud to represent Yukoners for a second consecutive term in office.”

The new Cabinet Ministers and their portfolios are:

Dennis Fentie	Executive Council Office; Finance; Environment
Elaine Taylor	Tourism & Culture; Women’s Directorate
Marian Horne	Justice
Archie Lang	Energy, Mines & Resources; Highways & Public Works; Yukon Development Corporation; Yukon Energy Corporation
Glenn Hart	Community Services; Public Service Commission
Jim Kenyon	Economic Development; Yukon Housing Corporation; Yukon Liquor Corporation
Brad Cathers	Health & Social Services; Workers’ Compensation Health & Safety Board
Patrick Rouble	Education

“I am confident this team brings together the talent, experience and dedication to carry on building Yukon’s prosperity by continuing the vision and direction that began with the election in 2002,” Fentie said.
