

Rules for Breakopen Ticket Licenses

License Requirements:

1. A Breakopen Ticket License is valid for the period as stipulated on the license.
2. Breakopen Tickets shall be sold only at locations approved by the Nova Scotia Alcohol and Gaming Authority.
3. It is illegal to dispense Breakopen Tickets by means of a machine.
4. Each ticket shall be exchanged for cash only at the time of the sale.
5. A license shall be issued only for the sale of Breakopen Tickets which are printed and distributed by the Atlantic Lottery Corporation.
6. Individual units of Breakopen Tickets having different serial numbers may be mixed.
7. The conduct and management of Breakopen Ticket sales cannot be delegated to another organization or to a person who is not a member of the licensee organization.
- 8a. Inspectors of the Nova Scotia Alcohol and Gaming Authority and representatives of Atlantic Lottery Corporation shall be permitted access to all areas of licensed locations, or places where tickets are stored, for the purpose of examining the tickets.
- 8b. Nova Scotia Alcohol and Gaming Authority Inspectors and Atlantic Lottery Corporation shall be permitted to remove the tickets or other appropriate documents associated with sales of Breakopen Tickets for further examination if deemed necessary.
9. The license may be revoked by the Nova Scotia Alcohol and Gaming Authority if the Breakopen sales are being managed or conducted in a manner which will, or is likely to, reflect unfavourably upon the integrity of gaming in the Province of Nova Scotia.
10. The license must be posted in a conspicuous place at the licensed location.
11. Only the prizes stipulated on the tickets shall be awarded by the licensee.

Licensee Responsibilities

1. Sellers will not be permitted to cash cheques or extend credit for the purpose of selling Breakopen Tickets.
2. The licensee shall display a notice that all winning Breakopen Tickets must be redeemed for prizes at the time of purchase, and the prizes awarded shall be in the form of cash.
3. Sellers shall not purchase Breakopen tickets while they are acting as sellers.
4. Each unit, whether complete or partially sold, when not under the direct control of the seller, shall be kept in a secure place.
5. Each licensee will be held responsible for and shall guarantee the payment of all winning tickets at the time of purchase.
6. It is the responsibility of the licensee to retain all winning tickets for a period of two months from the date of sale or as directed.
