

4-H WEEKEND - May 4-5, 2007 - Chaperone Application
NOVA SCOTIA AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE, TRURO, N.S.

Criteria for Chaperone :

1. Chaperones will be responsible for all members from their region that attend 4-H Weekend.
2. Only registered 4-H club members (age 9 - 21 as of January 1), 4-H leaders and 4-H parents can apply to stay in residence. Cloverbuds can attend the event but are not eligible to stay in residence.
3. A registration fee of $30.00 for leaders and 4-H parents chaperoning.
4. All chaperones must apply for residence and meal accommodations. Chaperones should participate in the weekend program at all times.
5. Rules and regulations will be strictly followed by members and chaperones. Any region not living up to these standards may be barred from residence for a one year period. No valuables or electronic equipment to be brought to 4-H weekend.
6. All members will be accommodated near their chaperone.
7. Chaperones will be expected to participate in floor meetings with all attending 4-H Weekend to ensure all are aware of the appropriate behaviour at this event.
8. If for some reason, the 4-H member does not conduct himself/herself according to the rules of 4-H Weekend; parents will be asked to come and take the child or children home. 4-H members can also be barred from participation in future events.
