The perfect stopoff on any tour of Gaspésie

Charming lakeside cabins await fishing enthusiasts and nature lovers. For an experience with a little more "splash," the Lac de l'Île cabin offers a unique setting. Whether for rowboating or trout fishing, cabin guests have exclusive access to the lakes they're assigned.

Those who want to experience nature at its own pace and absorb all the sounds and smells of the forest prefer the pretty, rustic riverside cabins. Others prefer the campground, which is equipped with showers, washrooms, a laundry room, and a common room that also serves as a kitchen.

The wildlife reserves are part of a network managed by the Société des établissements de plein air du Québec. They fall under the responsibility of the minister in charge of the Act respecting the conservation and development of wildlife.

Réserve faunique de Port-Daniel

Welcome to a little corner of paradise

Dotted with enchanting lakes and babbling rivers and carpeted with dense forest on its gently rolling hills, Réserve faunique de Port-Daniel is home to an exceptionally varied wildlife that includes a number of mammal species. On a casual stroll, you may spot a moose, white-tailed deer, otter, fisher, marten, Canadian lynx, and many others.

Hikers and anglers are invited to discover the pastoral setting of Rivière Port-Daniel and its cascades, gorges, and pools, which become the spawning grounds for Atlantic salmon in the fall.

This little out-of-the-way corner of paradise isn't too far from the beaten path—it's only 8 km from the ocean.
