AT

the tip of the Gaspé Peninsula, the Auberge Fort-Prével vacation resort stands on the site of what was once a coastal battery set up to protect against the threat of German submarines during World War II.

Few remains of this era are visible today, but the legendary hospitality and friendliness of Gaspé Peninsula residents live on.

Located along the ocean, between Gaspé and Percé, Auberge Fort-Prével offers various types of accommodations (inn, pavilion, cabins, house, motels and camping).

Fine regional cuisine is served at the vacation resort. Dishes are varied, tasty and affordable, with the emphasis being on seafood.

Overlooking the ocean, a magnificent eighteen-hole golf course, which benefits from a refreshing sea breeze, offers golfers an unforgettable experience. This golf course includes a 702-yard par 6.
