Statistical Profile of Aboriginal Peoples 2001

With Emphasis on Labour Market and Post-Secondary Education Issues

One Dot Equals Five Aboriginal Persons - 2001 Census of Canada

Nisga'a and the Northwest Health Service Delivery Area

The Nisga'a Treaty is a negotiated agreement between the Nisga'a Nation, the Government of British Columbia (B.C.) and the Government of Canada. The last step needed to give legal effect to the Treaty took place on April 13, 2000, when Parliament passed the Nisga'a Final Agreement Act. The Nisga'a Treaty provides for an open, democratic and accountable Nisga'a Government. It includes representation for all Nisga'a through the Nisga'a Lisims Government, four Village Governments, and three urban locals which provide a voice for Nisga'a citizens who do not live in the Nass Valley.

Note: Random Rounding. Statistics Canada uses a technique called random rounding that rounds the last digit of every number to 0 or 5 on a random basis. This is used to protect the confidentiality of individual responses. Data throughout this report has been rounded. As a result, parts may not add to the total.

All data in the following profile is based on residents of the Nisga'a Lands, LHA 92
