Welcome to

Ontario

Welcome to the 2007 edition of Golf Ontario Style – your personal guide to publicly accessible golf courses, accommodations, and attractions throughout the province. Whoever dreamed up the tenet that more is better must have had the province of Ontario in mind. Whether you play like a pro or enjoy a relaxing round, Ontario offers the finest courses for all levels of golfers.

The Raven Golf Club

Golf legend Arnold Palmer once quipped, “What other people might find in poetry or art museums, I find in the flight of a good drive.” In fact, Ontario’s golfers and the millions who visit our wonderful province each year enjoy the best of both worlds. As Ontario’s 12 million-plus residents know, Ontario is arguably the golf capital of North America. There are close to 750 great golf courses in Ontario – and more are planned for the near future. And, with a cornucopia of sights and sounds in our great cities, there is something for every tourist and resident here in Ontario.

This summer, the world will be focused on Ontario when the PGA Tour’s Canadian Open comes to Markham’s Angus Glen Golf Club, July 23 to 29. Angus Glen’s South course tested the world’s finest golfers in 2002, and now its North Course is ready to do the same. However, you don’t need to be a PGA Tour member to challenge Angus Glen’s beautiful 18-hole layouts. Like many of Ontario’s world-class golf courses, it’s also open for public green fees.

This is the beauty of Ontario golf. From historic Glen Abbey Golf Club in Oakville, to Taboo Resort, Golf and Spa in Gravenhurst, home course of PGA Tour star and Bright’s Grove, Ontario’s own Mike Weir, great golf courses are an important part of Ontario’s mosaic. The greater Toronto area alone boasts more than 200 superb courses, and just across Lake Ontario, the Niagara region is now a world-class golf destination with more than 40 top-notch layouts.

Here in southwestern Ontario, we are fortunate enough to enjoy more than 100 exquisite golf courses. That’s one course for every round I play during the course of the summer. Like many Ontario residents, and the many visitors who sample our tees, greens and fairways, golf is my passion.

As golf legend Harry Vardon once cautioned, tongue in cheek, “Don’t play too much golf. Two rounds a day are plenty.”

Whether you’re a scratch golfer or a weekend warrior, you’ll be glad you visited Ontario and its hundreds of world-class golf facilities.

Jeffrey Reed is a leading Canadian golf journalist, and editor of LondonOntarioGolf.com, celebrating golf in London and southwestern Ontario.

Canada's major gateway,
Toronto holds some of Ontario's world-class golf courses.

Toronto & AREA

Toronto is much more than Canada's largest city, weighing in at 4 million residents: It's also a golf mecca, with more than 200 courses within an hour's drive of the CN Tower, the world's tallest freestanding structure at 553.33 metres.

From its modest beginnings in 1793 as a military garrison, the town was named York in honour of the Duke of York, and 41 years later incorporated and renamed Toronto after the Huron Indian word for "meeting place." In fact, Toronto is where you will meet your every dream. It's one of the world's most cosmopolitan cities. Whether you shop along the city's eclectic Queen Street, please your senses at Kensington Market, or discover the latest fairway fashions within PATH – the world's biggest underground shopping complex – Toronto's offerings will amaze you.

For the sports fan, the Toronto Blue Jays of baseball's American League, and the Canadian Football League's Toronto Argonaut's both call Rogers Centre home. Nearby, there's the vibrant harbour of Ontario Place, fine dining, live theatre, world-class museums and quality accommodations.

When it's time to tee it up, visit any one of Toronto and area's highly-regarded golf courses. Of course, there's the Jack Nicklaus-designed Glen Abbey Golf Club in Oakville, home to the Canadian Golf Hall of Fame. You may also wish to sample Eagle's Nest Golf Club in nearby Maple, or Copper Creek Golf Club in nearby Kleinburg, some of North America's best new courses.

From rustic rural charm at the nearby links, to big-city hustle and bustle, Toronto has it all.

EAGLES NEST GOLF CLUB

MAPLE

The great Bobby Jones once said, "Only a really good course will afford the opportunity to use every club in the bag." With that said, welcome to Eagles Nest Golf Club.

An exquisite balance of nature and design, this spectacular layout, crafted by Canada's premier golf course architect Doug Carrick, offers a truly unique links style golf experience. The course, spread over 235 acres of breathtaking scenery in a converted sand and gravel quarry, presents unexpected challenges for golfers of all levels.

Signature holes abound as you traverse the rugged landscape reminiscent of a classic Irish Links. The 450-yard third hole begins with one of the best elevated tee shots in Ontario, and from the teeing ground at the downhill, 164-yard eighth hole, the vista of the Toronto skyline on a clear day is breathtaking..

At the 642-yard 17th, you are given two corridors of play from the tee, as you attempt to walk away with a well earned five, and finally, at the 484-yard dogleg right 18th, the backdrop to the final iron shot is one of the most spectacular clubhouses in the country.

After the round, enter the 36,000-square foot facility and enjoy the comfortable luxury of Jim & Garry's Pub overlooking the golf course, or treat yourself to an unforgettable dining experience in Lago, Eagles Nest's answer to five-star dining.

Opened for play in May of 2004, Eagles Nest has already been bestowed numerous accolades:

Located just outside Toronto's back door, The Hills of Headwaters is a golf lovers' paradise. Niagara

KITCHENER HAMILTON

Ontario's "Festival Country," bordered by Niagara, Kitchener and Hamilton, is a region which attracts a worldwide audience with its seasonal events, and its challenging golf courses. Located between Toronto and numerous U.S. border cities, this geographic gem is also a golfer's delight, offering everything from enjoyable municipal links to challenging championship courses.

Off the course, party at Kitchener's annual nine-day Oktoberfest, North America's largest Bavarian festival, and shop at the Farmer's Market in nearby St. Jacob's. Visit the majestic mountainous community of Hamilton, home to the Royal Botanical Gardens, Dundurn Castle, and the 1837-founded Hamilton Farmer's Market.

Niagara Falls needs no introduction, but you may be surprised by its more than 40 outstanding golf courses, including the new Thundering Waters, designed by PGA Tour star John Daly. Royal Niagara, Whirlpool, and Legends on the Niagara will also test your game. For a quick history lesson the links, visit Niagara-on-the-Lake Golf Club (est. 1875). While visiting the Honeymoon Capital of the World, board the Maid of the Mist and cruise to the base of the American and Horseshoe Falls. Visit Old Fort Erie and Queenston Heights, profound reminders of the War of 1812. Northeast of the falls, Niagara-On-The-Lake presents antique shops, charming bed and breakfast inns, and the Shaw Festival.

Natural wonders, famous festivals, and outstanding golf courses: this is Niagara-Kitchener-Hamilton.

Western Ontario: where city meets country, and where golfers meet their match. From cottage country to casinos, Western Ontario is a unique blend of rural serenity and urban vitality. Resting in the heart of the region, London is a golfer's paradise with 70 courses surrounding this city of 350,000. World-class research hospitals, the sprawling University of Western Ontario, and 81 holes of municipal golf await visitors to this big city boasting friendly faces.

Travel just a half-hour south to Lake Erie, and popular Port Stanley Beach awaits your visit. Here you'll find one of the prettiest holes anywhere – the par-5 4th at The Bluffs of Port Stanley, overlooking sail boats as far as the eye can see. North of London, along Lake Huron, some of Ontario's finest beaches and golf courses make up Bluewater country. Huron County has world-famous sunsets, and the enormously popular beach at Grand Bend. The sandy white beaches of Georgian Bay also draw thousands of vacationers each summer.

To London's northeast, Perth County awaits visitors with the Stratford Festival, North America's largest repertory theatre, and the Canadian Baseball Hall of Fame in St. Marys. An hour west of London, Sarnia is a boater's dream and a golfer's delight, and is home to the Point Edward Charity Casino. Windsor, known as the Rose City, borders the city of Detroit and boasts its own casino and quality golf courses. Nearby Pelee Island, known as "Canada's southern jewel," offers world-class birding and wineries.

Jeffrey Reed is a leading Canadian golf journalist, and editor of LondonOntarioGolf.com, celebrating golf in London and southwestern Ontario.

DEERHURST RESORT

HUNTSVILLE

Step onto the first tee of Deerhurst Highlands Golf Course and you'll understand why this course is still the gold standard of golf in Muskoka, Ontario. The view soars out and over the lake while the course dramatically drops away below you. From here you plunge into an extraordinary 7,011-yard golf journey. And after your round, the splendours of Deerhurst Resort await.

Architects Robert Cupp and Thomas McBroom designed the course to follow nature's lead throughout the naturally beautiful Canadian Shield setting. Its granite outcroppings and densely wooded terrain are optimized at the signature hole, #10, where elevated trees are perched above a 30' natural rock wall bordering the fairway below.

If you're looking for a quick round before you hit the big links, the par 65 Deerhurst Lakeside beckons with a McBroom redesign that lets you use every club in your bag.

Deerhurst's golf academy is the first Canadian home of ESPN Golf Schools with curriculum designed by Dean of Instruction, Hank Haney.

Beyond the courses, the days sparkle with water sports, trail-riding, children's programs and an Aveda Spa. In the evening, indulge in innovative cuisine at one of three restaurants then kick back at the newest version of the live show where Shania Twain was discovered.

An easy two-hour drive from Toronto, Deerhurst Resort is close to world famous Algonquin Provincial Park and just minutes from the historic town of Huntsville, Ontario. Golf and instruction packages and rates are available online at www.deerhurstresort.com.

Amidst magnificent country settings, stands the pride of a nation.

Ottawa & EASTERN

Home to 130 golf courses, Ottawa and Eastern Ontario also boasts rich Ontario farmland, northern white rapids of the Ottawa River, and the nation's capital region. Stretching from Peterborough, north to Pembroke, and east to Ottawa – one of the most beautiful cities in the world – Eastern Ontario is a paradise of picture-perfect golf and natural wonders.

From the days of the Loyalists, Ottawa's history is fascinating. Here you will discover an area of 4,662 square kilometres where golfers can actually bicycle, hop on the bus or grab a train to many of the area's great courses. Stone Bridge Golf and Country Club is a wonderful blend of parkland and linksland golf. Up for a challenge? The Marshes Golf Club is one of Ontario's toughest. And Eagle Creek Golf Course is an area icon, thanks to its perfect natural setting.

Built by the British between 1826 and 1832, the scenic Rideau Heritage Route involves a 202-kilometre canal, connected to lakes and rivers that shape surrounding communities. Kingston rests at the southernmost end of the Rideau Canal where waters cross into Lake Ontario, the St. Lawrence River, and the western gateway to the 1,000 Islands. Southwest, Belleville and Trenton are favourite haunts of local fishermen. Peterborough and the Kawarthas, named by the First Nations people as "bright waters and happy land," offer year-round activities.

Ottawa and Eastern Ontario: come for the golf and enjoy its history and beauty.

Jeffrey Reed is a leading Canadian golf journalist, and editor of LondonOntarioGolf.com, celebrating golf in London and southwestern Ontario.
