Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO)

FSCO's Mandate:

Our mandate is to protect the public interest and enhance public confidence in the regulated sectors. To do this, FSCO provides regulatory services that protect consumers and support a healthy and competitive financial services industry.

FSCO's Vision:

We are committed to being a vigilant, fair minded and forward-looking regulatory agency with a constructive and responsive presence in Ontario's financial services marketplace.

What is FSCO?

The Financial Services Commission of Ontario (FSCO) was created on July 1, 1998, as an arm's-length agency of the Ministry of Finance. FSCO integrated the operations of the former Ontario Insurance Commission, Pension Commission of Ontario, and Deposit Institutions Division of the Ministry of Finance. FSCO regulates insurance, pensions, credit unions, caisses populaires, co-operatives, mortgage brokers and loan and trust companies.

FSCO is comprised of three key parts:

- the Commission or "Board";
- the Financial Services Tribunal (FST); and,
- the Superintendent of Financial Services (Superintendent) and staff.
