

SECTION: Benefits

INDEX NO.: B100-204

TITLE: Pregnancy and Parental Leave Governed By
The Employment Standards Amendment Act

APPROVED BY: The Superintendent of Pensions

PUBLISHED: Bulletin 2/4, (February 1992)

EFFECTIVE DATE: When Published [No longer applicable - replaced by B100-206]

Taken from the "Your Questions Answered" column published in the PCO Bulletin. Please see the disclaimer at the beginning of the directory.

What piece of legislation governs the requirement to continue pension contributions for members during pregnancy and parental leave?

The Employment Standards Amendment Act, 1990, administered by the Ministry of Labour, governs the requirement to continue pension contributions during pregnancy and parental leave.