EATON'S
SANTA CLAUS PARADE
COLOURING BOOK

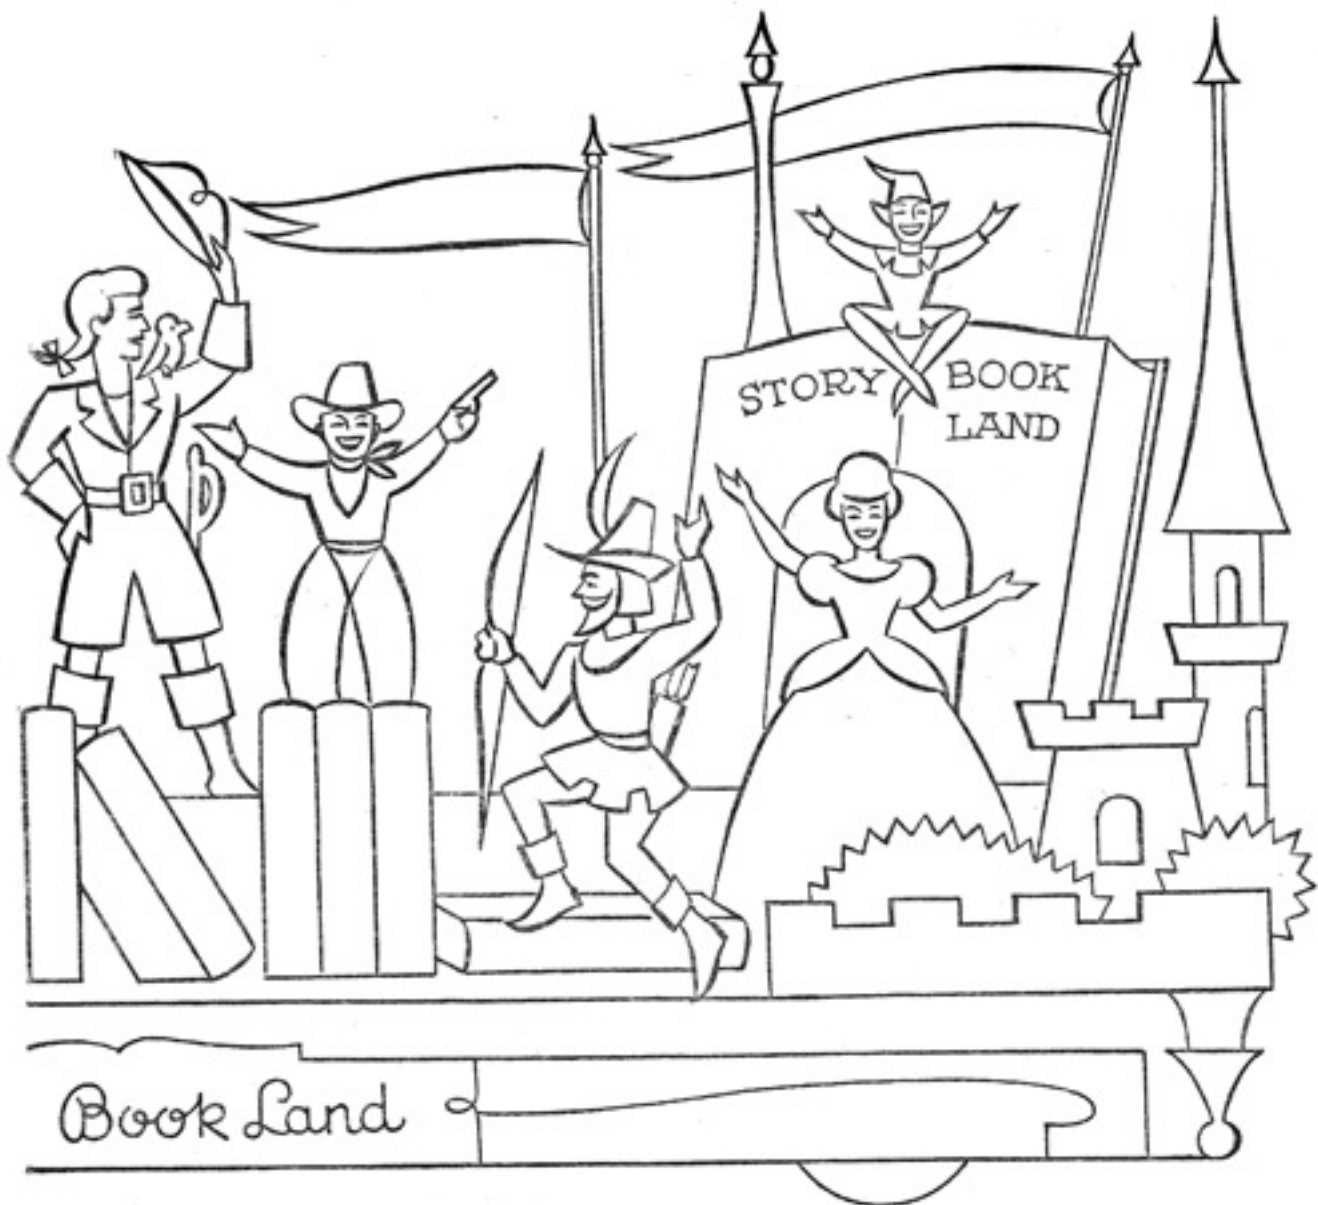

Christmas begins with the Santa Claus Parade! And the Parade begins with little Punkinhead! Here we see him in the lovely Animal Valley!

in Animal Valley

Did you ever think you would see Story Book Land?
Well, here it is! With gallant knights and bold pirates and merry archers and fair maidens!

Here comes Thumbelina, the tiny girl who married the King of the Little People! See the old toad! And the good swallow! And the kind field mouse!

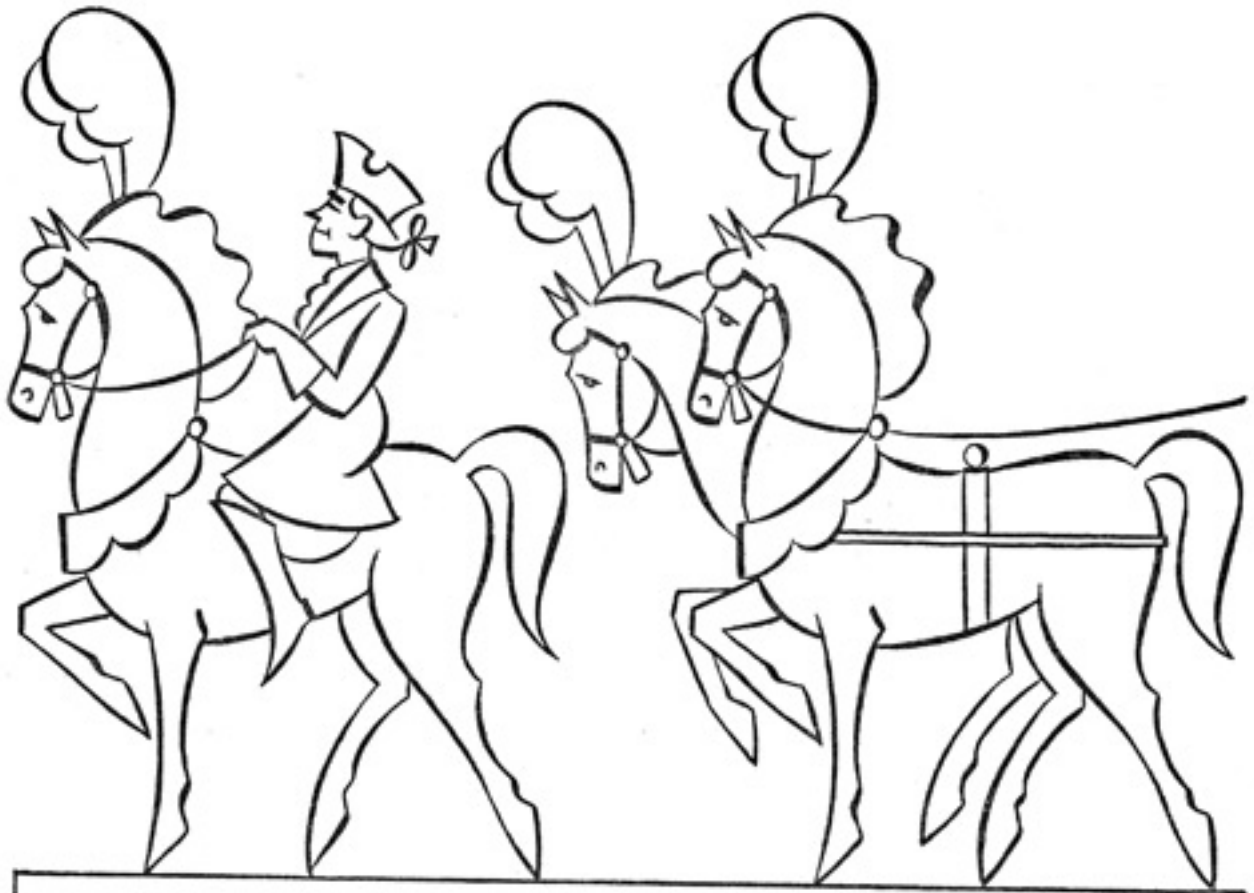

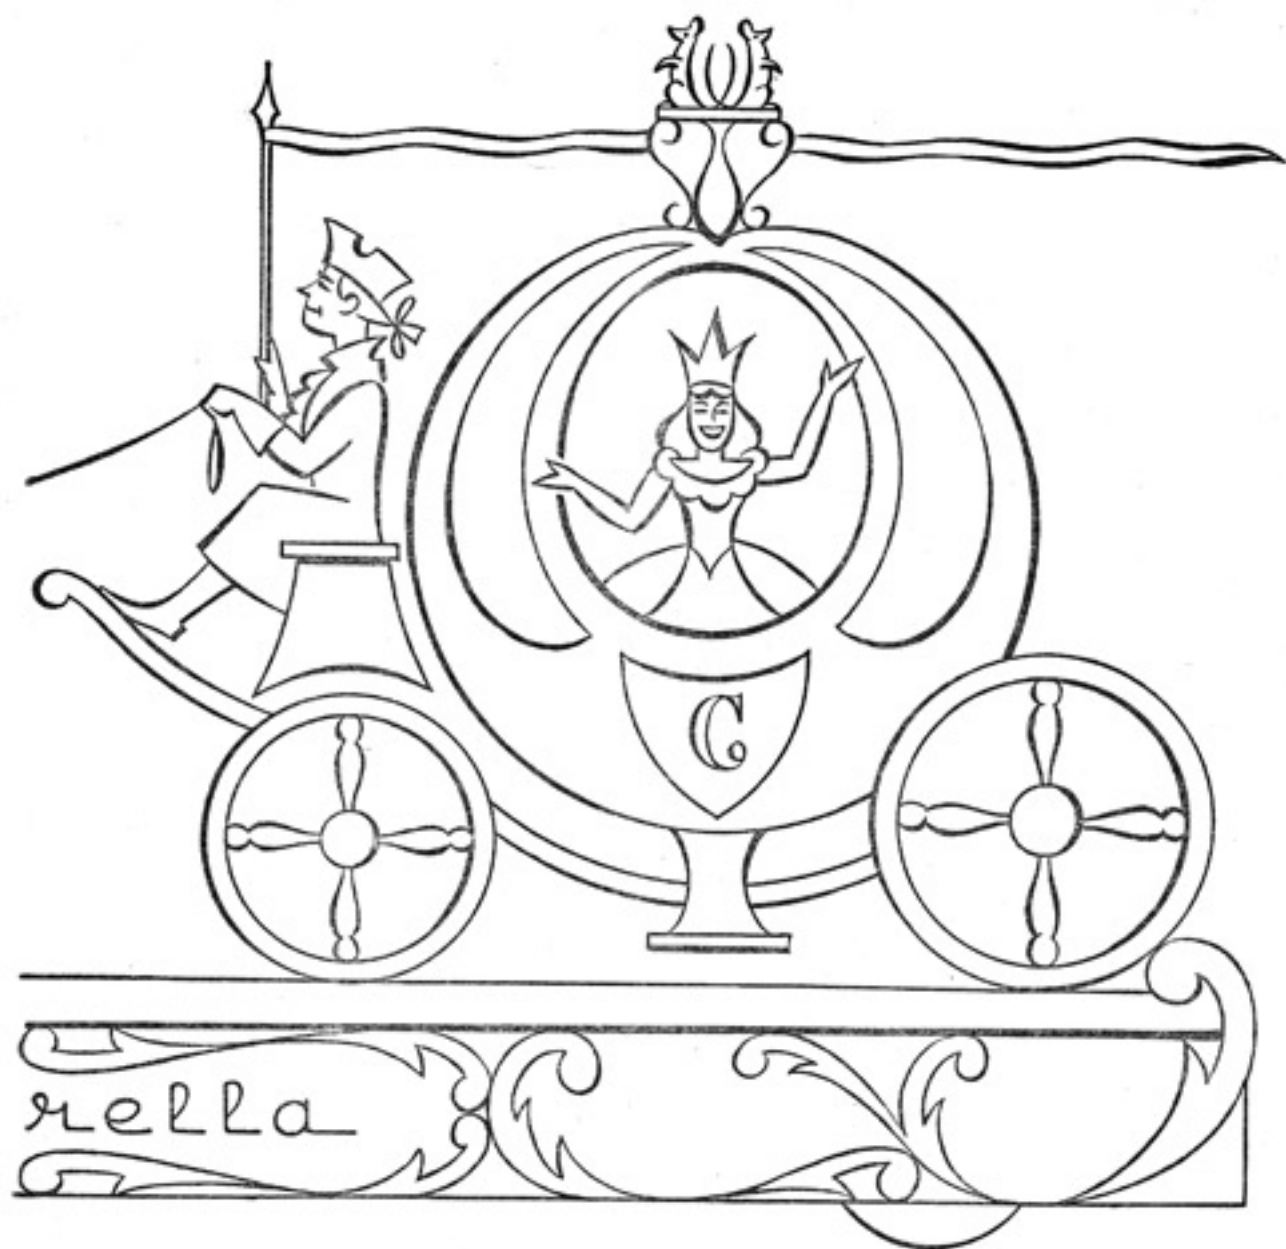

Little Red

Little Red Riding Hood is on her way through the forest to her Grandmother's cottage! Waiting for her is the wolf! But, nearby, stands the woodcutter!

Look! Look! Look! Here is happy Cinderella! Before our very eyes she passes by, in her Fairy Godmother's coach, drawn by prancing horses!

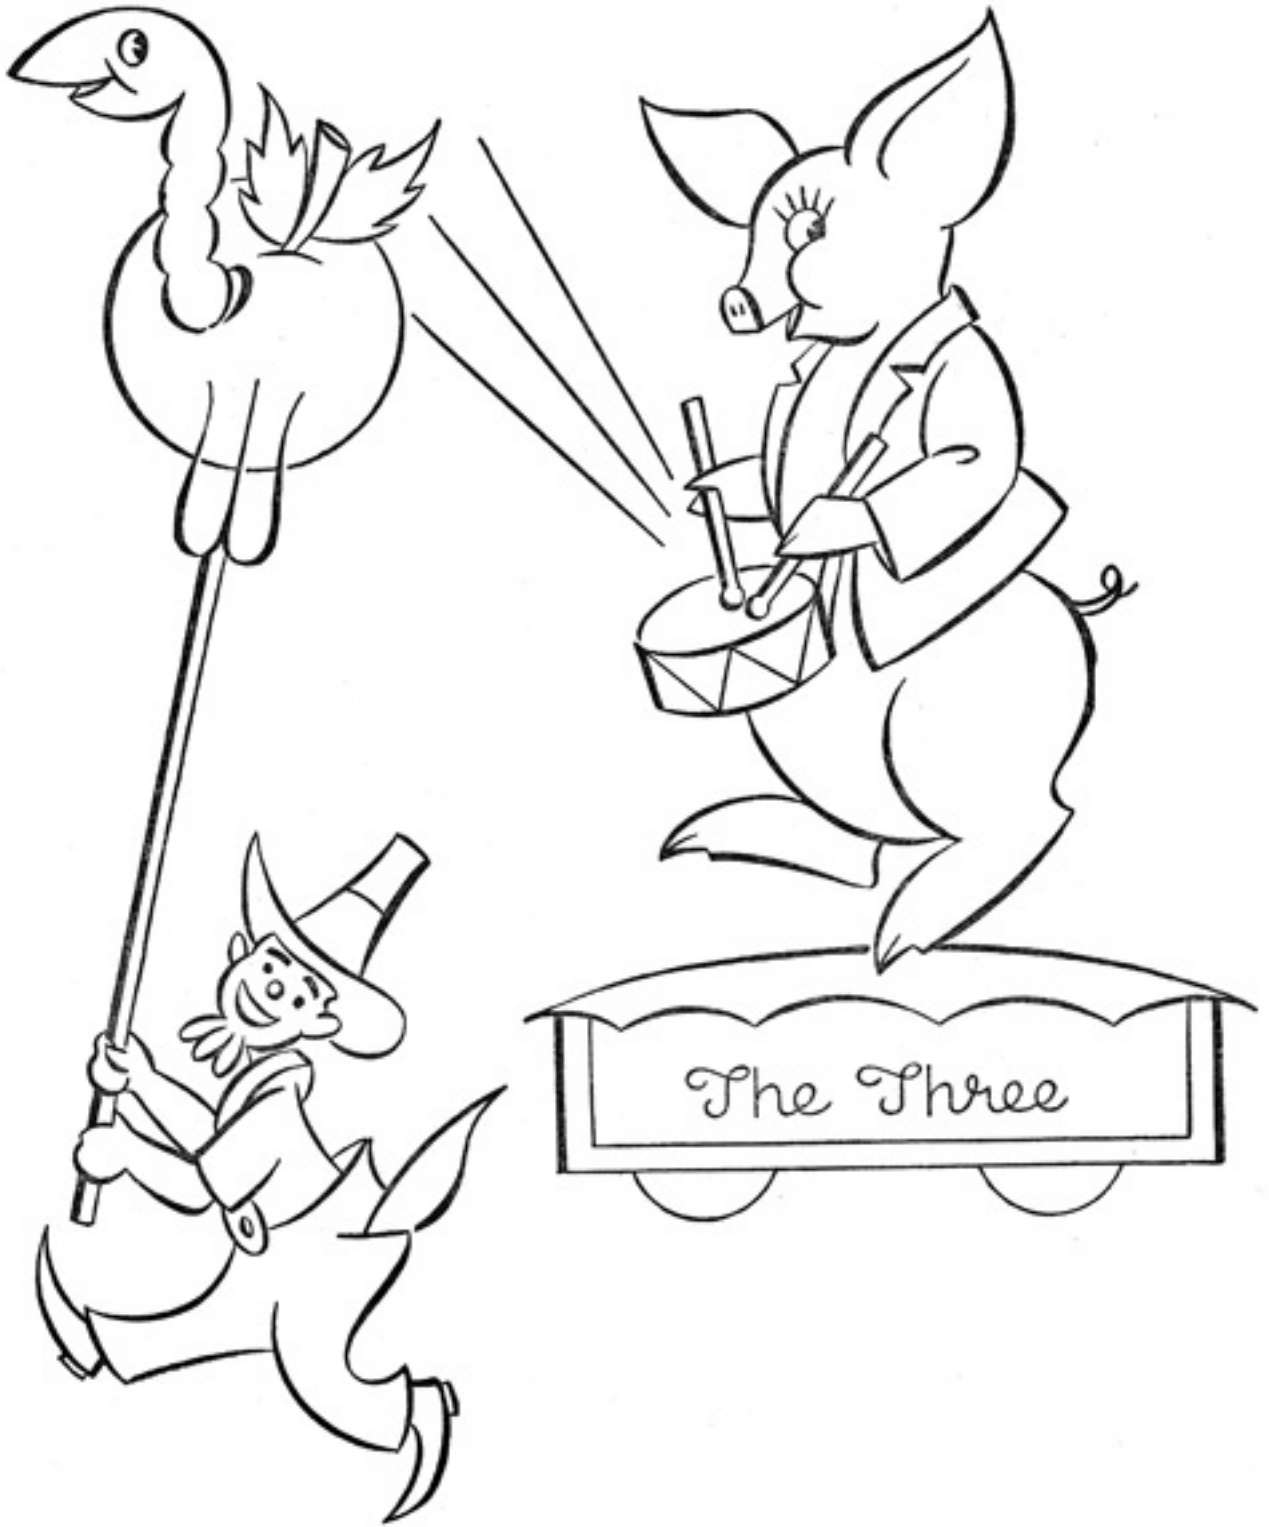

Beside his mother's cottage stands brave Jack! Yonder is the mighty giant! He holds the magic harp, and the hen that lays eggs of solid gold!

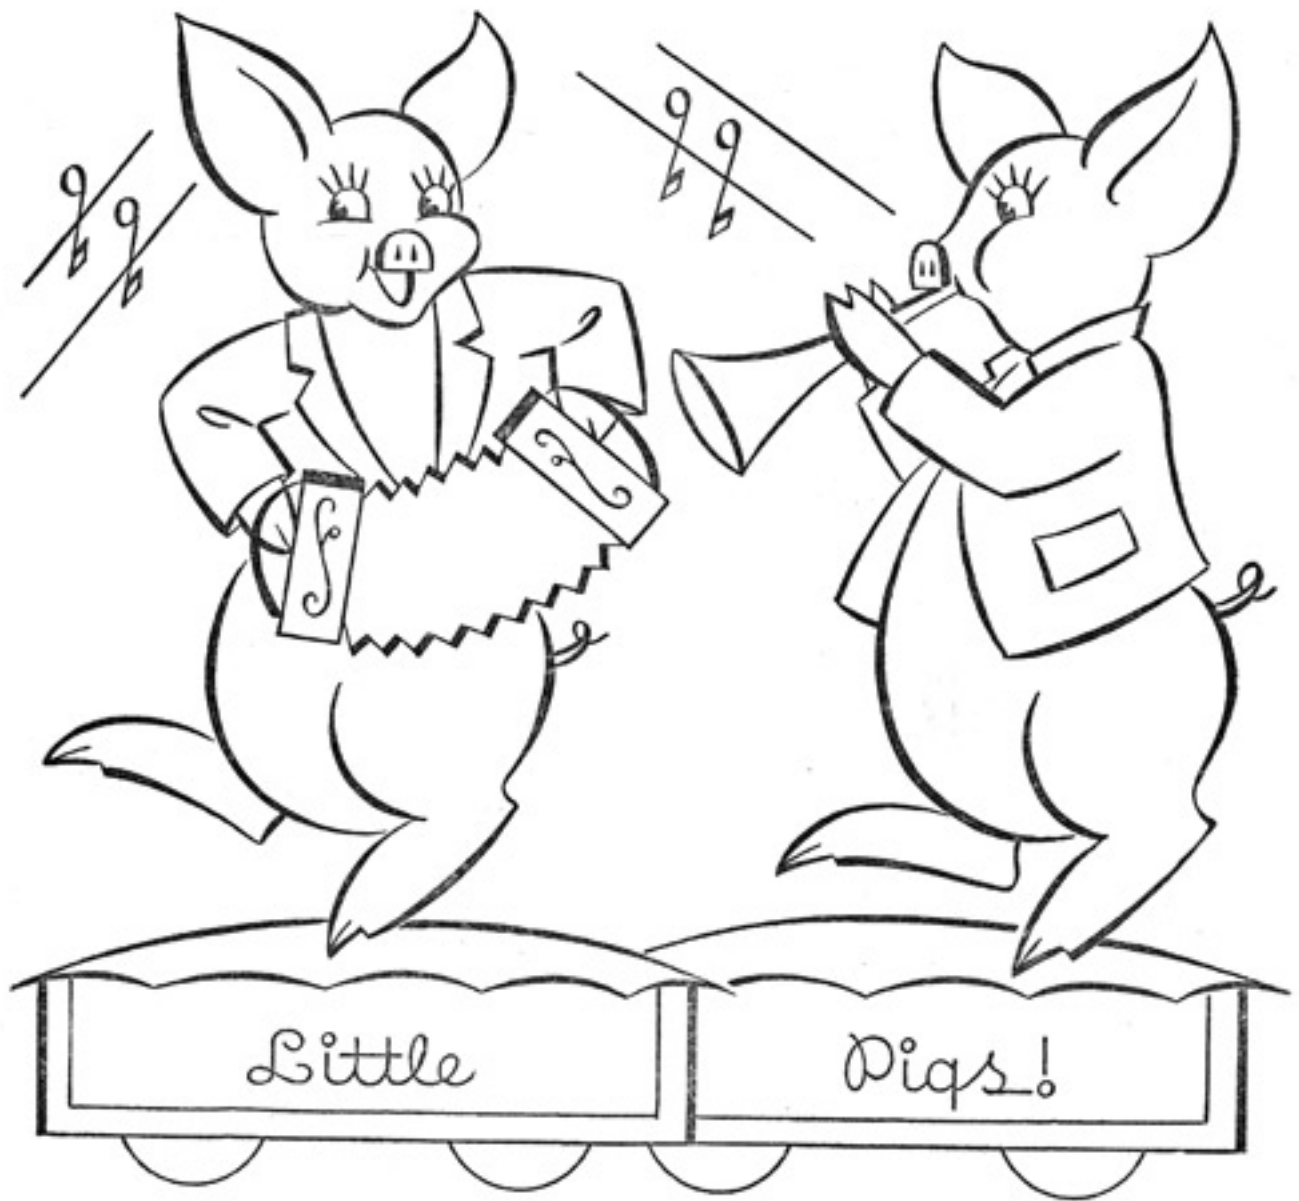

the Beanstalk

We all know this old lady! She is Mother Goose from Rhymeland.
And she has brought some friends.....

The Three Little Pigs march past to the music of their own band! There is no Big Bad Wolf to worry them today! So everyone's as happy as can be!

Mother Hubbard and Little Bo Peep and Little Jack Horner.

The Old Woman doesn't know what to do! But her children are having a merry time! Just like all the boys and girls at the Santa Claus Parade!

Oh! What a beautiful garden! There are silver bells and cockle shells and pretty maids all in a row! On the bridge in the garden stands wee Mistress Mary!

No Santa Claus Parade would be complete without the Fairy Queen! Here she comes in her tiny coach, pulled by two bunnies from the woodland!

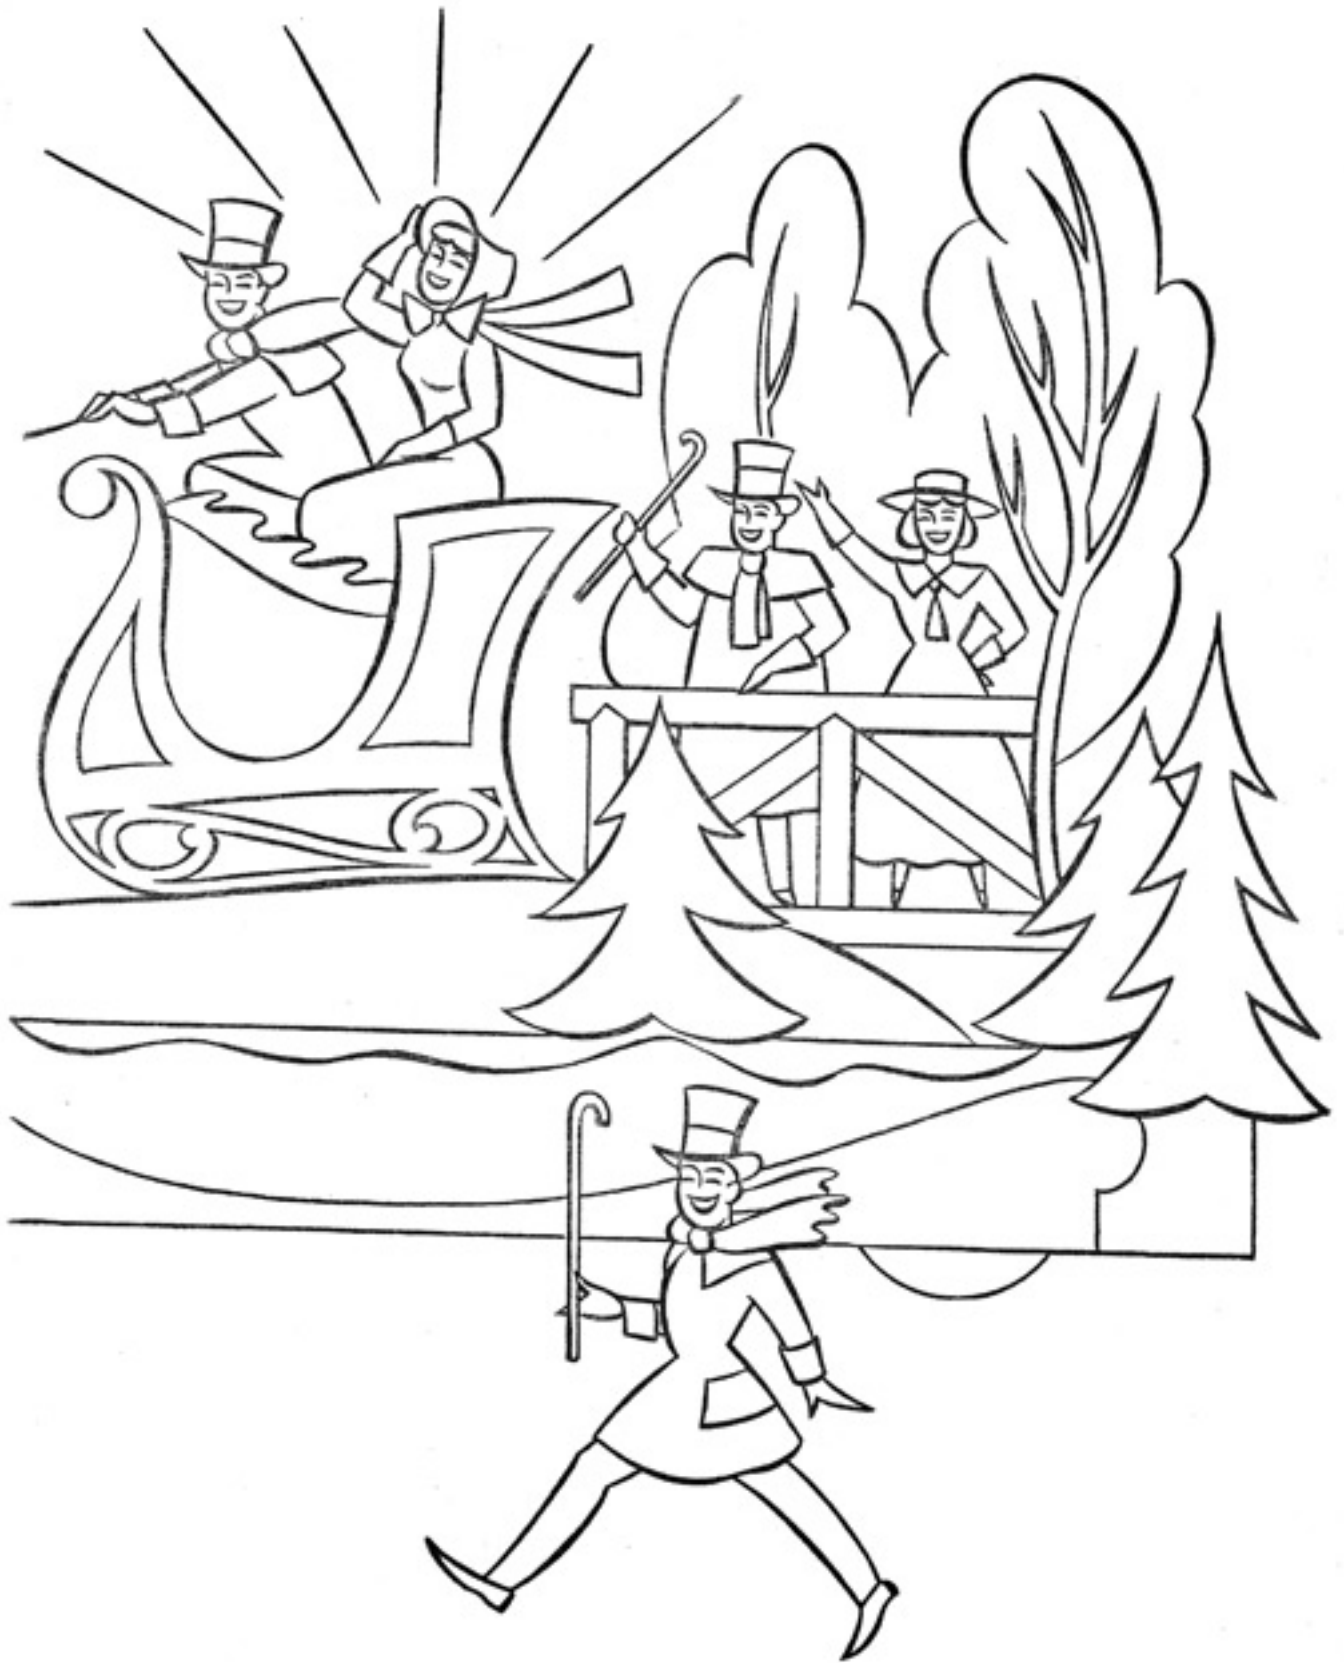

The Fairy Queen

Jingle bells! Jingle bells! Jingle all the way! Oh! what fun for everyone upon this happy day! This day of the wonderful Santa Claus Parade!

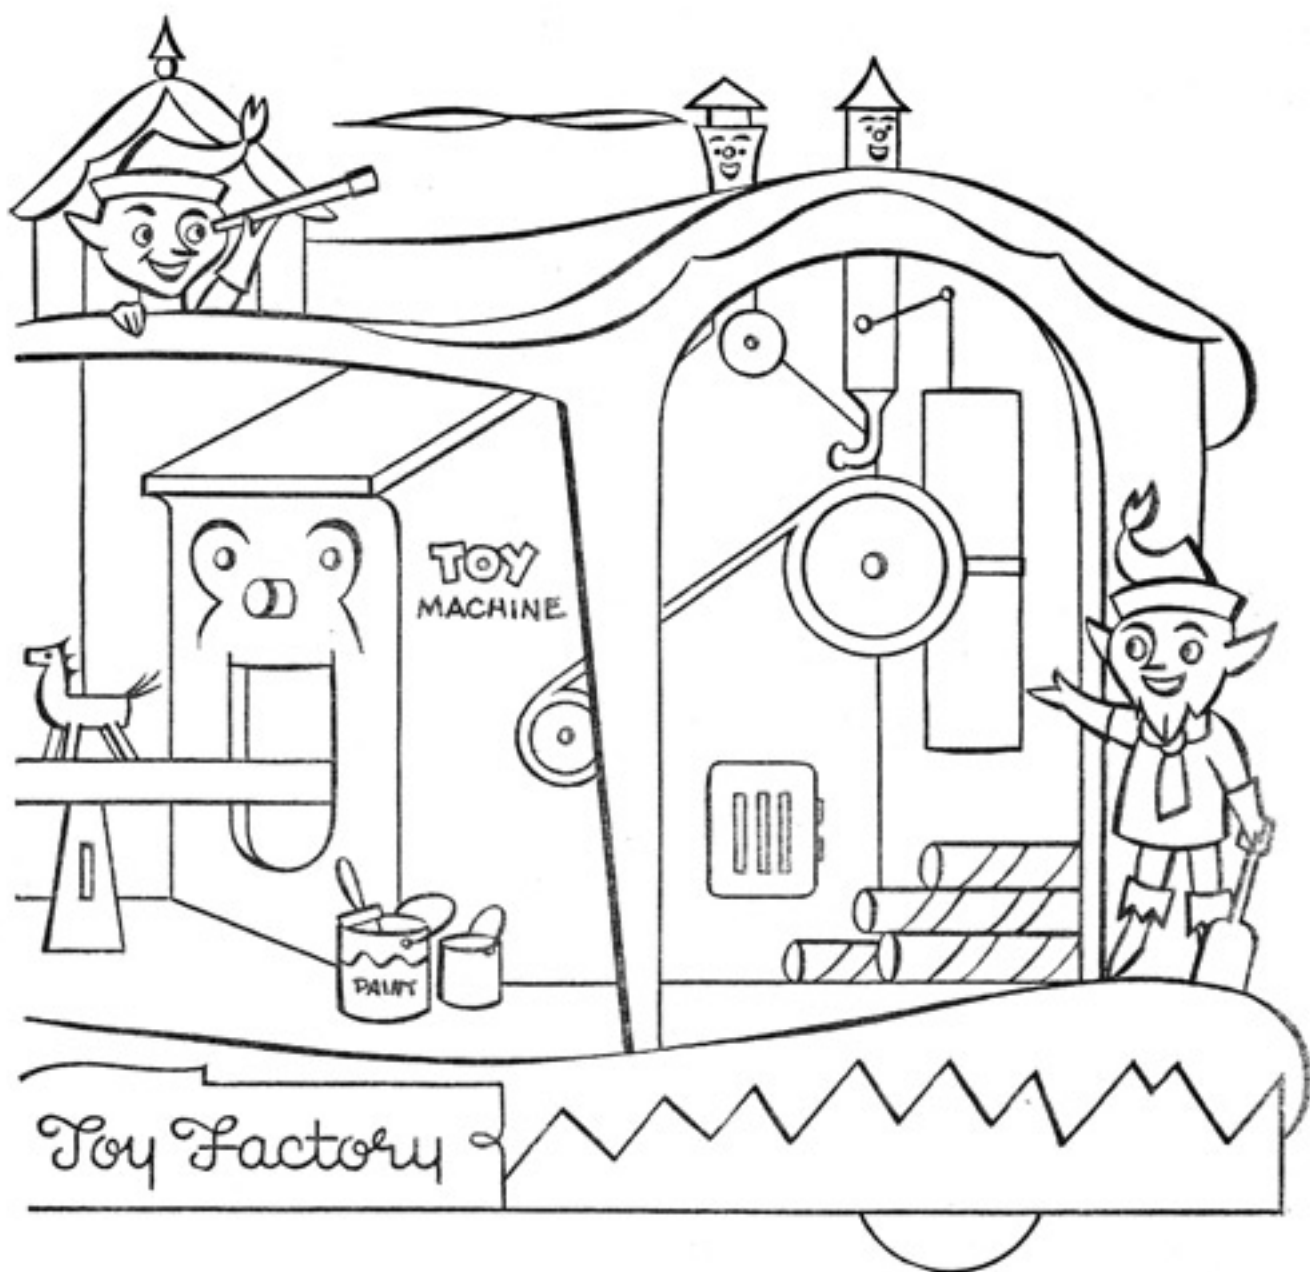

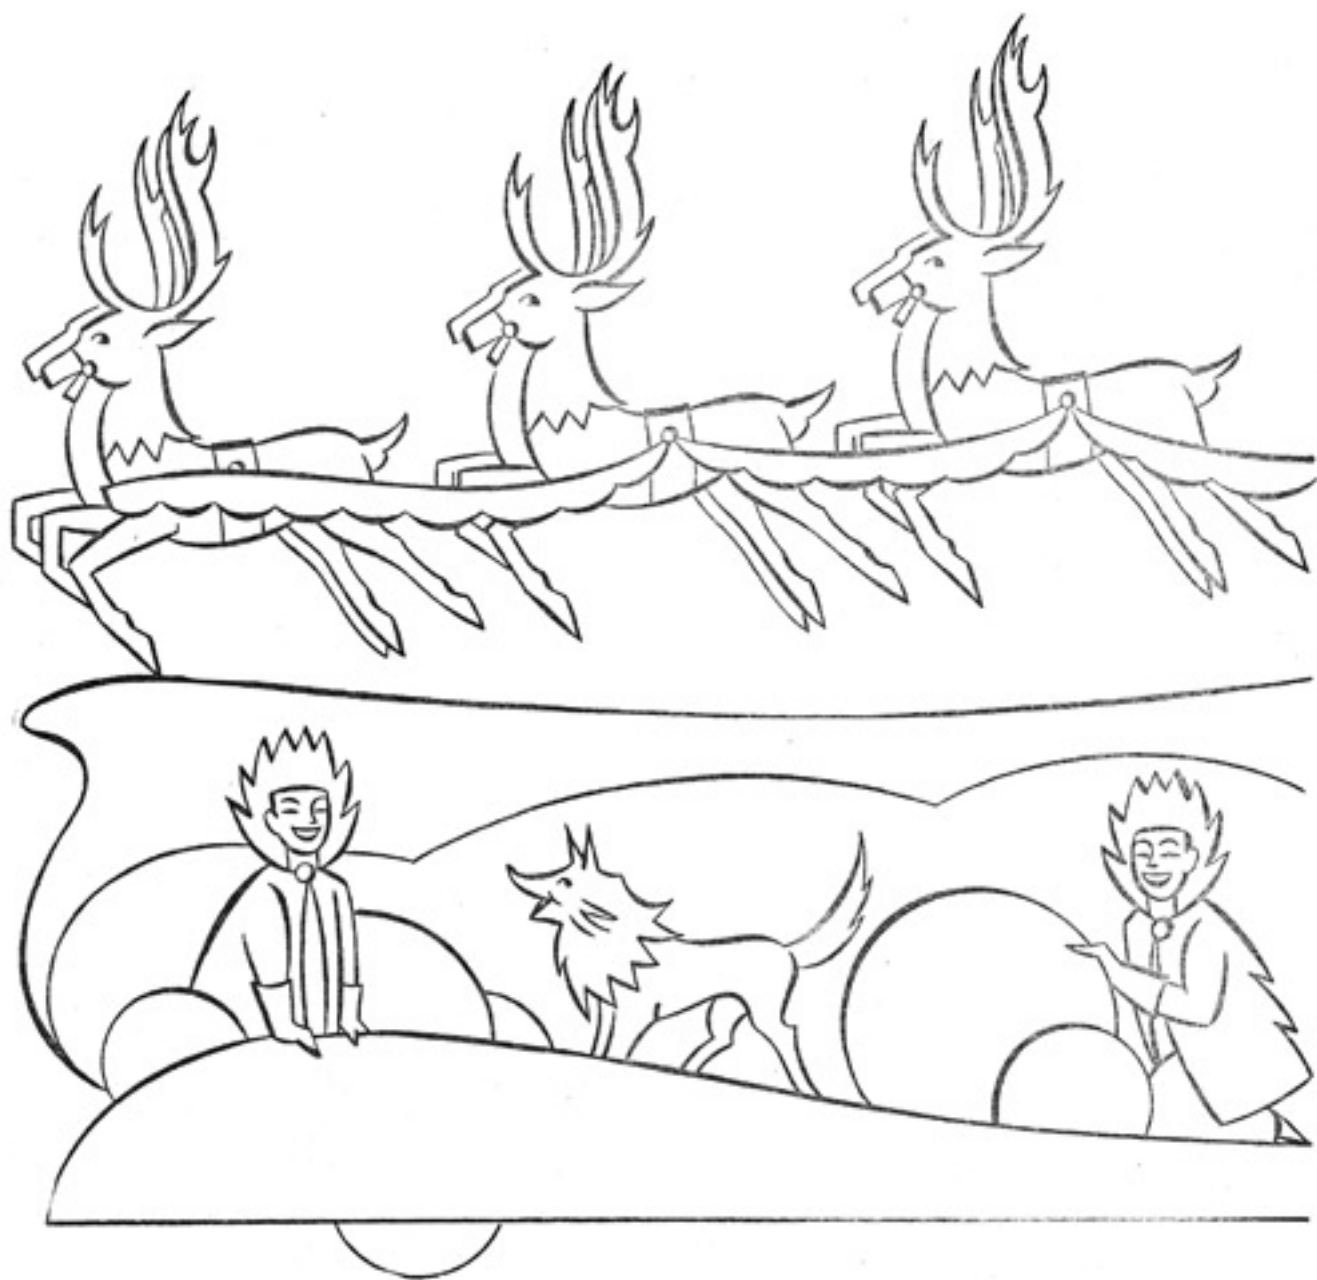

Mid twinkling ice and glittering snow live the bear cubs and the Eskimo! And a grand time they all have in this beautiful Polar Playground!

Santa's gay little elves are busy as bees in their Toy Factory! From a window, an elf peeps through a spy glass! GUESS WHO HE SEES!

SANTA CLAUS! With his reindeer and his sleigh! And a big bagful of toys for his girls and boys! Let's give three cheers for jolly SANTA CLAUS!
