Purpose of Directory

This directory is for Saskatchewan employers wanting hire Aboriginal people. It contains information on services and supports available to increase the employment of Aboriginal people.

Aboriginal Employment Makes Sense to Saskatchewan

- We need more Aboriginal workers to provide service to all Saskatchewan residents
- Aboriginal population is the youngest in Saskatchewan
- Aboriginal people are 1 in 4 new workers
- Saskatchewan has high numbers of trained Aboriginal graduates
- Aboriginal people want to stay in Saskatchewan

Who are Aboriginal People?

In Saskatchewan, services are often provided to specific groups of Aboriginal people. Here are some generally accepted definitions.

Aboriginal

Refers to individuals who identify as First Nation, Indian, Metis or Inuit

First Nation or Indian

Are registered Indians who possess a Status Indian card and are registered through the Indian Affairs Canada. First Nation can also refer to First Nation communities as well as persons.

Metis:

Refers to Aboriginal people who identify as Métis, who are distinct from Indian and Inuit, and are a descendant of those Métis who received or were entitled to receive land grants and/or Scrip under the provision of the Manitoba Act, 1870 or the Dominion Lands Act, as enacted from time to time;

or a person of Aboriginal descent who is accepted by the Métis Nation and/or Métis community.
