September 28 is International Right to Know Day. The Right to Know Steering Committee is inviting all university students in Saskatchewan to explain to us why the right of access to information is important in a modern democratic society.

All submissions must be received by the Right to Know Committee no later than 5:00 p.m. on August 15, 2007. The winner's name will be announced during Right to Know Week launch in October 2007.

RULES:

1. Original piece of work by student, but may be dual purpose in that its creation also satisfied a class requirement
2. Length 3000-6000 words
3. Must be fully sourced and footnoted appropriately
4. Cover sheet including title, name, student number, year and area of study, and contact info
5. Paper needs to be submitted in Microsoft Word format, double spaced
6. Papers submitted will not be returned

PRIZE

Winner will receive a
$500 cash award.
