April 14, 2008

9 – 4pm

Facilitator: Veroniek Marshall

Cost: $60.00

For this 1-day workshop participants will have a working knowledge of Attachment Theory. The day will focus on the practical application of this theory to families affected by violence. Exercises and case examples will be a part of the workshop.

Working with Adult Male Survivors of Childhood Sexual Abuse

June 5 & 6, 2008

9 – 4pm

Facilitator: Paul Carrick

Cost: $100 / person

Many service providers come into contact with men who have experienced childhood sexual abuse. Men's experiences often go unnoticed or unexplored due to the man or the service provider feeling unable to begin to talk about this taboo issue. This day and half workshop will help the service provider to feel more confident in the areas of: how to talk about and screen for sexual abuse, exploring myths surrounding male sexual abuse, impact of sexual abuse, therapeutic frame work for working with survivors, exploring relevant therapeutic theories for working with men, and important considerations while working with men.

Workshops are held at:

Klinik Community Health Ctr
Room B-10, 870 Portage
Winnipeg, MB R3G 0P1

Domestic Abuse: Theoretical Foundations

September 26 & 27, 2007

October 24 & 25, 2007

February 20 & 21, 2008

May 14 & 15, 2008

9am to 4pm

Facilitator: Tara Carlson, M.Ed. Psych

Cost: $100 / person

This workshop offers a practical and theoretical framework crucial to understanding domestic abuse. It encompasses counselling issues relevant to understanding the experience of women who have been abused (the psychological process of abuse), child witnesses of abuse (consequences of witnessing, why it's hard for kids to talk), and men who have abused their partners (why men abuse, engaging with men who abuse) as well as assessing for abuse, identifying its effects, addressing safety, and applying interventions.

NB: This workshop is a pre-requisite to the 2-day Working with Women who have Experienced Domestic Abuse workshop.

ASIST Training

October 27 & 28 (Sat & Sun), 2007

March 27 & 28 (Thu & Fri), 2008

9am to 4pm

Facilitators: Donna Reid and

Carl Heaman-Warne

Cost: $120 / person

ASIST (Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training) is a standardized 2-day introductory suicide intervention training developed by Livingworks in Calgary and is put on throughout Canada, the United States, Europe and Australia. ASIST "is for caregivers who want to feel more comfortable, confident and competent in helping to prevent the immediate risk of suicide". This basic training is mandatory for employment in many community agencies throughout Manitoba, and has been offered at Klinik since November 2006.

Crisis Counselling

October 30, 2007

9am to 4pm

Facilitators: Maureen Rice and

Cindy Fawcett

Cost: $60 / person

How we respond to a crisis situation, greatly depends upon our ability to understand the dynamics of crisis, to adequately assess a crisis situation and our ability to appropriately intervene. The Crisis Counselling workshop not only teaches participants how to respond effectively in a crisis situation, but further invites participants to explore their own internal reactions to these situations and it's impact on their ability to respond. This workshop is intended for people who wish to refresh, enhance or develop their crisis counseling skills. It is interactive, engaging and a practical application of the skills learned.

Working with Women who have Experienced Abuse: Issues, Goals and Interventions

November 21 & 22, 2007

9am to 4pm

Facilitator: Tara Carlson, M.Ed. Psych

Cost: $100 / person

This workshop refines participant's understanding of the experience of women who have been abused in intimate relationships and explores important therapeutic issues. Goals and interventions, for short-term crisis counselling and long-term trauma resolution are explored.

Workshops are held at:

Klinik Community Health Ctr

Room B-10, 870 Portage

Winnipeg, MB R3G 0P1

Changing the Lives of Sex Trade Workers: The Journey

December 7, 2007

9am to 4pm

Facilitators: Chris Willette, Kim Trossel,

Cathy Denby and members of the

Dream Catchers community

Cost: $60 / person

A workshop exploring specific needs and issues related to women exiting the sex trade; including addiction, trauma recovery, poverty and homelessness, as well as living transgender. Discussion will focus on the interventions most and least supportive to women in their recovery. Workshop will include input from experiential women.

Suicide Grief

January 24, 2008

1 – 4:30pm

Facilitator: Elly Van der Zande

Cost: $30 / person

Losing a loved one to suicide is one of the most difficult types of losses that a person can experience. The pain may seem overwhelming. It is important for relatives, friends and the larger community to support people throughout the grief process. This workshop examines what makes suicide loss unique and ways we as service providers can assist survivors on this difficult journey.

Advanced Suicide Training

January 30 & 31, 2008

9 – 4pm

Facilitators: Maureen Rice and

Cindy Fawcett

Cost: $225 / person

Working with someone who is suicidal can be a complex, frightening and challenging experience. Often we feel ill equipped with the necessary skills to adequately deal with these high-risk situations. This two-day advanced suicide training utilizes an interactive, engaging and practical approach, which invites participants to link theoretical knowledge to practice. The Advanced Suicide Training not only works toward the development and enhancement of assessment and intervention skills, but further provides opportunity for clinical exploration of challenges presented to those working in a front line supportive capacity.

Working With Developmental Attachment Trauma in Individuals and Couples

February 4, 2008

9 – 4pm

Facilitators: Elaine Bergen and

Mary-Jo Bolton

Cost: $60 / person

The trauma recovery process in therapy and the clinical relationship with individuals and couples will be explored from the experience of clients and therapists.

Rural Stress and the Urban Service Provider: What You Need to Know

February 28, 2008

1 to 4pm

Facilitator: Janet Smith

Cost: $30 / person

This hands-on workshop examines the 'culture of farming' as well as the specific stressors and challenges experienced by farm families today. We will look at some of the unique characteristics of farm and rural stress, barriers to help-seeking behaviours among farmers, and how to respond to farmers under stress. This workshop is designed for health and social services providers who may be providing services to farmers who are attempting to navigate systems in an urban setting.
