[Notice to be added at the bottom of covering page]

NOTICE TO THOSE SERVED WITH THIS ORDER:

This order contains provisions requiring the committee to file an inventory of the respondent's property, and to pass his or her accounts before the court at specific intervals.

Any person served with the application for the appointment of a committee is entitled to be given notice by the committee of the motion to the court to pass the accounts. The committee may also request court approval of the proposed compensation for the committee, and approval of the legal fees to be paid to the committee's lawyer, when the accounts are passed.
