NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

If you intend to appear at the hearing of the above claim, whether to dispute the claim or to request time for payment of the claim, you are required to file at the office of the court, not less than 7 days before the above date fixed for the hearing of the claim, a Notice of Intention to Appear (Form 76D).

If you wish to file a COUNTERCLAIM, you are required to file the counterclaim (Form 76E) at the office of the court and to serve it immediately upon the plaintiff against whom the counterclaim is made.

If you do not appear at the hearing, default judgment may be given against you and you may not then appeal this decision unless you first obtain leave to appeal from a judge.
