Public Consultations and Notifications Duff Roblin Park Reserve and other Provincial Parks May 3, 2004 Place Louis Riel, Winnipeg, Manitoba

The purpose of the public consultation is to provide information and obtain your feedback on proposed or planned boundary or regulation changes on two provincial parks, and comments regarding the intent to update the regulations for several parks. Please review background information prior to submitting your comments and suggestions. If required, please use additional space when submitting your comments.

Your comments will be kept confidential and all feedback will be pooled into summary results.

General Comments

Duff Roblin Park Reserve (Change the Land Use Category (LUC) from Recreational Development to Heritage, & expand the eastern park boundary to help preserve the natural and cultural values of the park and include park facilities within the park)

Camp Morton Provincial Park (Remove 7.2 meters from the western park boundary for improved highway conditions and safety of motorists)

Norris Lake Provincial Park (Reduction of the eastern park boundary by 10 meters for improved highway conditions and safety of motorists)

Hecla/Grindstone & Elk Island Provincial Parks (Correct survey plans to include updated definition of the Ordinary High Water Mark for Lake Winnipeg to allow for the creation of protected Land Use Categories in provincial parks adjacent to water bodies.)

Duck Mountain Provincial Park (Extension of Access Land Use Category around the Brush Creek Pit area to correct an error in the legal survey plan. The change will allow the continued use of this valuable gravel source for park and area roads)

Oak Lake Provincial Park (Correction of the original survey description to reflect an accurate location of park)

Memorial Heritage Park (Correct the legal survey plan to reflect the widening of Osborne Street north of York Avenue in the early 1990s)

Please use this extra space for additional comments, concerns or suggestions
