Bakers Narrows

- 145 hectares of Precambrian Boreal forest

Located just south of Flin Flon, Bakers Narrows Provincial Park consists of 145 hectares of Precambrian boreal forest. An angler's retreat, the park is hidden in the vast mixed forest of coniferous and deciduous trees of the Canadian Shield. The campground can accommodate those who want to camp individually or in larger groups.

Lake Athapapaskow, with its clear blue waters, offers not only tranquility, but also excellent trout and walleye fishing. The name "Athapapuskow" means "rocks on both sides" or "rocks all around" in the Cree language. Travel the waters by canoe or motor boat to see if you can spy great blue herons, double-breasted cormorants, or common loons. In addition to the many types of birds who live in the park, you may also find yourself upon the trail of a moose, mink, or beaver.

The Bakers Narrows scenic tower offers spectacular views of the forest, rock outcrops and crystal clear waters. Surrounded by the deep, yet vibrant greens and blues of the landscape, read the tower's interpretive signage to learn how the history of the area was influenced by those who utilized the area's resources, from early inhabitants to modern industry. Driving east from the park will lead you to nearby Grass River Provincial Park. While you are there, hike the Karst Spring self-guiding trail.

Bakers Narrows campground provides sheltered, private campsites which have either electrical or basic service. Centralized showers, modern washrooms, as well as group use & picnic areas are also available. The beaches in the campground provide swimming opportunities, and playground equipment is located throughout the campground. Hiking, boating, wildlife viewing, photography, and fishing opportunities await. The boat launch gives easy access to those wishing to be on the water.

For over 50 years, area residents and tourists have attended the Flin Flon Trout Festival, which is held every Canada Day long weekend. Main events include a month-long fishing derby on Lake Athapapuskow and Bakers Narrows Days. Although the event has a fishing theme, there are many other activities that will keep you busy, including Main Street Days and the Trout Festival Golf Tournament.

Those interested in the Flin Flon industry sector can tour the Hudson Bay Mining and Smelting Company throughout the summer.
