

2006 Manitoba Vote on the Canadian Wheat Board Eligibility Criteria

All producers with a direct economic stake in the Canadian Wheat Board are eligible to cast one vote. Specific eligibility criteria are as follows:

Wheat

- Producers that actually produced wheat in 2005 and/or 2006, or were entitled to a share of the wheat crop as a landlord in 2005 and/or 2006 are eligible to cast a vote.

Barley

- Producers that actually produced barley in 2005 and/or 2006, or were entitled to a share of the barley crop as a landlord in 2005 and/or 2006 are eligible to cast a vote.

The following individuals within each farm legal structure are eligible to vote, subject to a maximum of one vote per person:

Type of Farming Enterprise	Individuals that are eligible to Vote
Sole Proprietorship	Owner
Partnership	Each Legal Partner
Corporations / Colonies	Each Legal Shareholder
Crop-share Landlords	Same as above

If you or someone you know has been omitted from a voters' list, a Declaration must be filled out and signed by a Commissioner for Oaths or a Notary Public. Declaration forms can be downloaded from the Manitoba Agriculture, Food and Rural Initiatives website at www.gov.mb.ca/agriculture. Alternatively, you can pick-up a form at any MAFRI GO Centre or Office throughout the Province.

All GO Centres and Offices will be staffed with a Commissioner for Oaths for your use, free of charge, for these Declarations.

All Declarations MUST be completed by December 18, 2006 to be accepted.

Please direct any inquiries to your local GO Office or Centre, or visit www.gov.mb.ca/agriculture for more information.
