

NEWFOUNDLAND & LABRADOR

DIVISION OF CO-OPERATIVE EDUCATION
MEMORIAL UNIVERSITY OF NEWFOUNDLAND

DIRECTOR

Are you a visionary who is both knowledgeable and passionate about co-operative education? Are you stimulated by the opportunity to lead a team of co-op professionals at one of the country's foremost co-operative education institutions? Memorial University of Newfoundland is seeking a dynamic and qualified person to fill this exciting role of Director, Co-operative Education.

As Director of this academic unit, you will report to the Associate Vice President Academic and become responsible for the leadership, administration, and continued growth and success of co-operative education degree programs at Memorial. Your vision and passion for co-operative education will allow you to serve as the chief spokesperson for co-operative education; you will work closely with internal and external partners to continue building the profile of Memorial's co-operative education programs while nurturing its sense of community through the continued development and implementation of the Division's strategic plan.

The ideal candidate for this role will have extensive experience in the field of co-operative education at the postsecondary level together with an appropriate combination of academic credentials and work experience to garner respect from within the University and its external community. He/she must be a demonstrated leader and manager with outstanding interpersonal and relationship building skills.

Memorial University is the largest university in Atlantic Canada. As the province's only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the educational and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador. Offering diverse undergraduate and graduate programs to almost 18,000 students, with approximately 1,500 of these enrolled in co-op degree programs, Memorial provides a distinctive and stimulating environment for learning in St. John's, a safe, friendly city with great historic charm, a vibrant cultural life, and easy access to a wide range of outdoor activities.

If you have the vision and drive to build on Memorial's reputation as a leader in co-operative education, please forward your résumé along with the names and contact information of three referees before June 1, 2007 in confidence to:

The Selection Committee
c/o Dr. Michael Collins, Associate Vice President Academic
Memorial University of Newfoundland
at avpacad@mun.ca

To learn more about why you should join our team of co-operative education professionals, please visit our website at www.mun.ca/coop/home/ or contact Ms. Lisa Curran, Co-ordinator, Academic Recruitment and Retention at 709 737 6157.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority. Memorial University is committed to employment equity and encourages applications from qualified women and men, visible minorities, aboriginal people and persons with disabilities.