

Disclaimer Re: Facebook and other Social Networking Mediums

Public Notice: With social networking, via the internet and other electronic venues such as Facebook, becoming an ever increasing reality, and in respect of an individual's right to free speech, the Canadian Action Party hereby notifies all concerned that this website is the one and only official web presence of the Canadian Action Party.

Additionally, all concerned are further notified that any distribution or use of our logos, trademarks, or other identifying material through a social network has not been authorized by the Canadian Action Party, and any information and or claim expressed by an individual via a social networking forum is the action, opinion and responsibility of the individual and may not necessarily accurately represent the Canadian Action Party's official party structure, position and or policies.