

Authorizing or Cancelling a Representative

Why do you need to complete this form?

Taxpayer and trust account information is confidential. We need your consent if you want the Canada Revenue Agency (CRA) to deal with another person (such as your spouse or common-law partner, other family member, friend, or accountant) who would act as your representative for income tax matters. For individual accounts, only forms received with a valid social insurance number (SIN), temporary tax number (TTN) or individual tax number (ITN) will be processed.

This form must be completed by you or your legal representative (read "What is a legal representative?" on this page).

Can you use this form for your business accounts?

No. For business number accounts, you have to complete Form RC59, Business Consent Form.

What is a legal representative?

A legal representative can be someone with your power of attorney, your guardian, or an executor or administrator of the taxpayer's estate or a trustee for trust accounts. That person does not need to complete this form to be updated as a legal representative on your account, but he or she must provide a complete copy of the legal document that identifies him or her as acting in that capacity.

What will your representative be allowed to do?

When you give us consent to deal with a representative, you are letting that person represent you for income tax matters, depending on the level of authorization you specify, for the tax year or years. Income tax matters include issues related to information on your tax return.

For security purposes, if your representative contacts or visits us, he or she will be asked to identify himself or herself. After we confirm your representative's identity, and verify that he or she is listed as your representative on your account, we will ask for specific information relating to:

- your notice of assessment, notice of reassessment, or other tax documents; or
- the contents of your income tax return.

Who can change your marital status, address, or direct deposit information?

Only you or your legal representative can ask us to change your marital status, address, or direct deposit information. Also, only you or your legal representative will be allowed to authorize, view, and cancel other representatives you have on your file.

Giving consent to a representative

You can consent to have more than one representative at the same time. However, you must complete a separate Form T1013 for each representative.

You can also give or cancel a consent by providing the requested information online through "Authorize my representative" on our Web site at www.cra.gc.ca/myaccount.

You can also change information about an existing representative through the My Account online service or by completing a new Form T1013. For example, if your existing representative has traditional access only (telephone, in person, and in writing) and you would like to give the CRA your consent to deal with him or her online, a new authorization form must be completed because they are not automatically given online access when they register the business (BN), themselves (ReplD) or a group (GroupID) with the "Represent a client" online service. You do not have to complete a new form every year if there are no changes.

The difference between Part 2 and Part 3 is that Part 2 grants online access and Part 3 does not. Therefore both cannot be completed. If both parts are completed, we will only process Part 2.

Note

Online access is not available for trust accounts.

Part 1 – Taxpayer information

Enter your name, telephone number and account number. If you are an individual, enter either your social insurance number (SIN), temporary tax number (TTN), or individual tax number (ITN). Otherwise, enter your trust account number or T5 filer identification number.

Part 2 – Giving consent for a representative (including online access)

By giving consent to a representative in Part 2, you are authorizing your representative to deal with the CRA via our online services as well as via the telephone, in person and in writing. Complete Parts 1, 2, 4, and 6.

You have to provide the ReplD if your representative is an individual, the GroupID if your representative is a group of individuals, or the business number if your representative is a business. Our online services do not have a year-specific option. Therefore, your representative will have access to all tax years.

ReplD / GroupID / Business number

A ReplD is a seven-character alphanumeric code that identifies your representative. If your representative does not have a ReplD, he or she can register for one online at www.cra.gc.ca/representatives.

A GroupID is a six-character alphanumeric code, starting with the letter G, that identifies a group of representatives. The group of representatives can register online at www.cra.gc.ca/representatives.

A business number (BN) is a nine-digit number that identifies the business that you choose to represent you. The BN must be registered with the "Represent a client" online service to be an online representative. Your representative can register their BN at www.cra.gc.ca/representatives.

If you complete two or more fields:

- an individual (ReplD) will take precedence over a group (GroupID) or a business (BN); and
- a group (GroupID) will take precedence over a business (BN).

If you entered a ReplD, provide the name of the individual associated to the ReplD. If you entered a GroupID, provide the name of the group associated to the GroupID. If you entered a BN, provide the name of the business associated to the BN.

Enter the level of authorization you want to grant to your representative (read "Levels of authorization" on the next page).

If you give consent for online access, you will receive a Letter of Intent informing you of the authorization for online access. If you agree with the authorization, a response is not required.

If you give consent for online access and you have a "care of" address on your account, a Letter of Intent will be generated and online access will not be granted until you or your legal representative calls the CRA to confirm online access for the representative's authorization.

Part 3 – Giving consent for a representative (other than online access, including trust accounts)

You can authorize your representative to deal with us only through our telephone services, in person and in writing. You have to provide the name of your representative if it is an individual, or the business name if your representative is a business. Complete Parts 1, 3, 4, and 6.

Note

If your representative is a business and you do not identify an individual in that business as your representative, you are giving us consent to deal with anyone from that business

Enter the level of authorization you want to grant to your representative and the year(s) for which you want to give your consent (read "Levels of authorization" below).

Levels of authorization

The level of authorization that you allow tells us what you agree to let your representative do. In some cases, you may want us to disclose your income tax information to your representative, but he or she cannot ask for changes to your account. By specifying the level of authorization, you are controlling the type of access given to your representative.

Note

If you do not specify a level of authorization, we will assign a level 1.

Level 1 – Disclose

We may disclose information to your representative such as:

- information given on your T1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return or your T3 Trust Income Tax and Information Return;
- adjustments to your T1 General Income Tax and Benefit Return or your T3 Trust Income Tax and Information Return;
- information about your registered retirement savings plan, Home Buyers' Plan, tax free savings account and Lifelong Learning Plan;
- your accounting information, including balances, payment on filing, and instalments or transfers;
- information about your benefits and credits (Canada child tax benefit, universal child care benefits, goods and services tax/harmonized sales tax credit, and working income tax benefit); and
- your marital status (but not information related to your spouse or common-law partner).

Level 2 – Disclose / Request changes

We may disclose the information listed in level 1 to your representative, and with level 2, he or she may ask for changes to your account. Such changes include adjustments to income, deductions, non-refundable tax credits, and accounting transfers.

Your representative will be able to submit a request for taxpayer relief or file a notice of objection or an appeal on your behalf.

However, your representative will not be allowed to change your address, your marital status, or your direct deposit information.

We will not give your representative your eight-character access code which is located on the top right corner of your notice of assessment.

Part 4 – Consent expiry date

Enter an expiry date for the consent given in Part 2 or Part 3 if you want the consent to end at a particular time. Your consent will stay in effect until you or your representative cancels it, it reaches the expiry date you choose, or we are notified of your death.

Part 5 – Cancelling one or more existing consents

Make note of each consent you give so you can cancel them when they are no longer needed. You can immediately cancel an existing consent either online at www.cra.gc.ca/myaccount or by calling us at 1-800-959-8281. You can also cancel an existing consent by completing Parts 1, 5, and 6 of this form. Your consent will stay in effect until you cancel it, it reaches the expiry date you choose, or we are notified of your death. Your representative may also request by telephone, in person, or in writing, that the consent you have given him or her be cancelled.

Part 6 – Signature

If you do not sign and date this form, we cannot be sure that you have given us consent to deal with the representative identified on the form. To protect the confidentiality of your tax information, we will not accept or act on any information given on this form unless you or a legal representative has signed and dated the form. If two or more legal representatives are acting jointly on the taxpayer's behalf, the signature of each legal representative is required in Part 6 of this form. This form must be received by the CRA within six months of its signature date. If not, it will not be processed.

Where do you send your completed form?
