Part C – Calculation of deduction (to be completed by employee)

- (B) If you owned or rented the residence being claimed, complete the following:

How many months did you ordinarily occupy this residence during the year? _____

Calculation:

Income from qualifying employment (from all eligible employers) .....	$ _____	1
1/3 of Line 1 .....	$ _____	2
Number of months in qualifying employment .....	_____	3
Line 3 x $1,000 (to a maximum of $10,000) .....	$ _____	4
Enter the greater of Line 2 and Line 4 .....	$ _____	5
Actual rent and utilities paid or, if residence owned, fair rental value including utilities for the total period in the year that the residence was owned or rented and you were in qualifying employment .....	$ _____	6
Deduct: All amounts claimed by you or by any person in respect of the accommodation* .....	$ _____	7

Line 6 and Line 9 .....	$ _____	10
Line 1 and Line 10 .....	$ _____	11

Enter the amount from Line 11 on Line 231 of your return.

* Note: The actual rent and utilities paid or, if residence owned, the fair rental value including utilities must be reduced by all other amounts deducted in calculating income from a business or from an office or employment in connection with the same accommodation if the other amounts deducted are in respect of the same months or period. This could arise, for example, when your spouse or common-law partner claims work-space-in-the-home expenses for the same accommodation.

- (C) If you received free accommodation for your residence (A) for part of the year and owned or rented the residence being claimed (B) for a different part of the year, add amounts (A) and (B) and claim the total amount on line 231 of your return. The amount claimed for the clergy residence deduction can never exceed income from qualifying employment on Line 1 of the above calculation.
