

- Enter the applicable taxation year in the box above.
- Complete this schedule if you claimed a reserve on the disposition of the trust's capital property at the end of the previous year, or are claiming a reserve on the disposition of the trust's capital property at the end of the current taxation year.

Note

Complete the 2000 Schedule 2 if the trust has a reserve to report in the year 2001, and the first day of its taxation year is before October 18, 2000. You also have to complete the 2000 version if the trust had dispositions of capital property before October 18, 2000, and is claiming a reserve on that property for the 2001 taxation year.

- Use the information from this schedule to complete Schedule 1, Dispositions of Capital Property, Schedule 3, Eligible Taxable Capital Gains, and Schedule 12, Minimum Tax.
- A trust cannot claim a reserve if, at the end of the year, or at any time in the immediately following year, it was not a resident of Canada or was exempt from tax. This restriction does not apply to a charitable gift of a non-qualifying security.

Time limit for reserves:

In most cases, you can only claim a reserve for four years. However, if the disposition occurred before November 13, 1981, there is an exception. For more details on the time limit and on how to calculate a reserve, get Interpretation Bulletin IT-236, Reserves – Disposition of Capital Property.
