Part 3 – Eligible mineral exploration expenses -

The expenses must be incurred in 2005 for determining the existence, location, extent, or quality of a mineral resource in Yukon.

Expenses that do not qualify for this credit include:

- any expense related to a mine that has come into production in reasonable commercial quantities, or to a potential or actual extension of such a mine:
- a Canadian development expense as defined in subsection 66.2(5) of the federal Income Tax Act;
- an expense described in paragraphs (g), (j), and (l) to (o) of the definition of Canadian exploration expense in subsection 66.1(6) of the federal act;
- the cost of seismic data defined in paragraph 66(12.6)(b.1) of the federal act;
- an expense renounced in your favour under section 66 of the federal act;
- an expense incurred in drilling or completing an oil or gas well, or in building a temporary access road to, or in preparing the site for, any such well; and
- a Canadian exploration and development overhead expense (CEDOE) as defined in the federal Income Tax Regulations. A CEDOE includes administration, management, or financing of your business, and salary, wages, or other remuneration or related benefits paid to a person whose duties were not all or substantially all directed towards exploration or development activities. It also includes payments for taxes, insurance, maintenance, and leases for property, all or substantially all of the use of which by you was not for the purposes of exploration or development activities.
