

Office of the Superintendent of Financial Institutions Canada

Bureau du surintendant des institutions financières Canada

DATE: January 29, 2013

TO: Federally Regulated Financial Institutions

FROM: Julie Dickson, Superintendent

SUBJECT: Appointment of Assistant Superintendent, Supervision Sector

I am pleased to announce the appointment of Andrew Kriegler as Assistant Superintendent, Supervision Sector, effective February 18, 2013, in preparation for the retirement of Ted Price, the incumbent.

Mr. Kriegler brings to OSFI more than 25 years of varied experience in the financial services industry, most recently as Senior Vice-President and Treasurer of CIBC, a position that he held since 2008. Previously, he spent eight years with Moody's, where he was Managing Director, Canada for six years and Senior Vice-President and Chief Human Resources Officer at Moody's head office in New York. In the 1990s, Mr. Kriegler worked at CIBC, BMO/Nesbitt Burns and Canada Trust, in areas such as securitization and funding.

Mr. Kriegler earned an MBA from the University of Western Ontario and a Bachelor of Science (Economics and Computer Science) from Trinity College, University of Toronto.

Mr. Kriegler will initially attend French language training and will then join OSFI's Executive Committee, which presently includes Ted Price, Deputy Superintendent; Gary Walker, Assistant Superintendent, Corporate Services Sector; Mark Zelmer, Assistant Superintendent, Regulation Sector; and myself.

Please contact me should you have any questions regarding this appointment.
