

Section A – Household Composition

AR1. We are going to start with general questions about the people who live in your dwelling. We use the term dwelling or home to refer to your house, apartment or rental unit.

A1. Including yourself, how many persons usually live in this dwelling? Include all persons who usually live here, even if they are temporarily away. Do not include visitors or temporary residents who have a usual home elsewhere.

Person(s)

1 No usual residents in this dwelling → (GO TO A3)

7 Don't know

8 Refused

A2. Including yourself, what are the names of all persons who usually live here?

INTERVIEWER: Please write the first name of each resident onto Table A on page 03. Begin with the name of the person who is answering the questions. This will be the "reference person" or "person 1". The relationships of all other residents will be in terms of this reference person.

Note: Do not include visitors or temporary residents who have a usual home elsewhere.

Continue to Question A3 once you have finished adding the names of these persons to Table A.

A3. Are there any other persons who usually live here but are now away at school, in hospital, on the land, house sitting, or somewhere else and will return to this dwelling?

1 Yes → Please add the names of additional persons to Table A on page 03 and then go to A4.

2 No

7 Don't know

8 Refused

A4. Is there anyone staying here temporarily who does not have a usual home elsewhere?

1 Yes → Please add the names of additional persons to Table A on page 03. Be sure to identify these persons in Question B1 as temporary residents.

Visitors to the household and persons who have a usual home elsewhere should not be included in Table A.

2 No

7 Don't know

8 Refused

AI4. INTERVIEWER: If all persons staying at this address at the time of the interview have a usual home elsewhere, mark the check box below and write an explanation in the Comments section on page 32 of the questionnaire.

1 All persons staying at this address at the time of the interview have a usual home elsewhere.

Table A – List of Household Residents (Begin with the name of the person who is answering the questions followed, if applicable, by that person’s spouse or common-law partner and by their children who usually live here. Continue with all other persons who usually live here.)
