

Let Us

Let us have Pow Wows.
Let us dance the Koju'a.
Let us chant and let us sing.
Let us wear our own beautiful clothes.
Let us practice our rituals.
Let us beat our drums.
Let us speak Mi'kmaq

Let us respect the caribou.
Let us have a Makushan.
Let us have our drum dance, our innuniminanu.
Let us pass our songs down to the next generation.
Let us have a healing circle.
Let us speak Innu-aimun

Let us have walking out ceremonies.
Let us participate in the Meuskum Eetoowin.
Let us sing Okemaw Maskosis to our children.
Let us wear moccasins and buckskin shirts.
Let us adorn our hair with feathers in celebration.
Let us tell stories from our family's wampum.
Let us speak Cree.

Let us wear the Métis sash.
Let us dance and play the fiddle in a jig.
Let us carry our flag proudly.
Let us celebrate Louis Riel Day.
Let us sing We are Proud to be Métis.
Let us communicate with the spirit Kitchi-Manitou.
Let us speak Michif.

Let us live our culture.
Let us worship according to our religion.
Let us cling to our traditions.
Let us celebrate our celebrations.
Let us sing our songs.
Let us dance our dances.
Let us speak our language.
