Mr. Crysler,

We would like to clarify what you mean by your first sentence "the address DGR.Review is not "available". Your e-mail was received by the DGR Mailbox this morning and there was no problem with its transmission. Secondly with regards with your comment, can you expand on its meaning and how it relates to the DGR environmental assessment review.

Thank you for your participation,

Gentlemen, good morning.

The address DGR.Review is "not available".

My comment would be: "This would make for a great story in Mad Magazine."

Regards, Roger Crysler
