Hello,

All submissions are posted on the electronic registry for the public record; however, those received after the May 24, 2013 deadline will not be included in the Panel's deliberations on determining sufficiency to proceed to a public hearing for the project.

Dear Debra,

I have noticed that there are a number of submissions dated after May 24, 2013 showing up on the CEAA registry. I thought the final date for public submissions was May 24, 2013? Are public comments still being accepted? Please advise.
