Three key things you need to know

1) Activate your new debit card right away

Your existing debit card (if you have one) will soon be deactivated.

If you received your new card in branch:

Activate your card at a CIBC bank machine before you leave the branch.

- New cards: Insert card and select “PIN Options”, then “Select ABM PIN” and follow the prompts
- Replacement cards: Insert card and select “Other Services/ Change PIN”, then select “Change PIN Options” at the bottom left corner of the screen and follow the prompts. If you have a CIBC Advantage Debit Card, the contactless payment feature (Interac Flash®) will be activated when you do your first PIN transaction in person at a merchant (Point of Sale) terminal

If you received your card in the mail:

Activate your card by using it along with your PIN at any CIBC bank machine or retail location.

2) Changes to your purchase experience

As retailers make the transition to chip technology and contactless payments, the way you use your debit card to make purchases may vary. Insert, swipe or tap and hold your card as required by the merchant with whom you are making the transaction.

If you have a CIBC Advantage Debit Card:

- When shopping at stores in Canada:
 - Use your card at any retailer who accepts Interac® and insert your card and enter your PIN to authorize the transaction
 - If the merchant terminal has an Interac Flash logo and/or this symbol  you can tap and hold your card to complete the purchase
- When shopping at stores outside Canada:
 - Use your card at any retailer who accepts Visa and sign and/ or enter your PIN to authorize the transaction

3) Protect your debit card and PIN

It is important to safeguard your card, your card details (such as your card number) and your PIN at all times. Never lend your card or disclose your PIN to anyone and monitor account activity. Treat your card as though it were cash and give your card details only when you initiate a purchase with a trusted retailer. The CIBC Advantage Debit Card can be used to make purchases either with or without a PIN or the card being present.

Worldwide purchase acceptance

You can use your CIBC Advantage Debit Card to pay for purchases directly from your account(s) anytime, anywhere.

Worldwide

If you are a CIBC Advantage Debit Card holder, you can use your card to shop around the world:

- In Canada, at stores that accept Interac Debit and/or Interac Flash
- Internationally, at stores that accept Visa cards¹
- Online, over the phone or by mail at:
 - most U.S. and international retailers that accept Visa cards¹
 - participating Canadian retailers that accept Visa Debit

Note: The CIBC Advantage Debit Card has a Visa logo with the word Debit on it, but it is not a credit card. It is a debit card that allows you to make debit purchases directly from your account using Interac Debit and/or Interac Flash at stores in Canada and the global Visa network for shopping at stores outside Canada as well as online, by phone and by mail.

As retailers make the transition to chip technology and contactless payments, the way you use your debit card to make purchases may vary. Follow these simple steps:

Interac Flash

1. Tap and hold: For smaller everyday purchases, you can look for merchant terminals with the Interac Flash logo.

When you tap and hold your card in front of the reader:

- The purchase amount is automatically debited from your chequing account (or the account in the chequing position)
- If no account is present in the chequing position on the card, the transaction will be debited from the account in the savings position instead
- Once the transaction is complete, you can ask the merchant for a receipt
- If no account is present in either the chequing or savings position on the card, the transaction will be declined

Please see page 13 for more information on Interac Flash.

Interac Debit and Visa Debit

1. Insert or swipe: Where the retailer's terminal is chip-enabled, insert your debit card into the terminal, chip end first, and leave it there for the duration of the transaction. Otherwise you will need to swipe your card.
2. If prompted, select account type: You may be asked to choose "chequing" or "savings".
3. If prompted, PIN/sign: In Canada, you will be asked to enter your PIN to authorize the transaction. Outside Canada, you may be asked either to enter your PIN or to provide your signature to authorize the transaction.

In some cases, you may be asked to choose either "Chequing" or "Savings". In other cases, the merchant terminal may automatically select the account in the chequing position or, if you do not have an account in the chequing position, the account in the savings position will be used. If you do not have an account in chequing or savings, the "Other" position may be used. You are responsible for any fees, interest charges and amounts borrowed (if the account is a line of credit account or has overdraft protection) or incurred as a result of any transactions.

Shopping online, by phone or by mail with your CIBC Advantage Debit Card

With the CIBC Advantage Debit Card, you can enjoy the convenience of shopping online, by phone or by mail with trusted participating retailers:

1. Choose Visa as the card type.
2. Provide your card number and expiry date located on the front of your CIBC Advantage Debit Card.
3. As an additional security measure, some online retailers may require the three-digit Security Code on the back of your card.

Important: The three-digit Security Code is NOT your PIN. Never disclose your PIN to anyone.

4. At times, you may be asked for the cardholder name as shown on the front of the card.

Three-digit Security Code

Tip: If your card does not have a name on the front, use your legal first and last names.

5. Provide your billing address and other information as required.

6. Obtain payment confirmation.

Important: When you use your CIBC Advantage Debit Card to conduct Advance Payment Transactions, including reserving goods and/or services such as hotel reservations or car rentals, funds for payment of that transaction may be debited immediately from your account by the merchant. You are, in effect, making an advance payment for a service to be used in the future, so the funds may be debited from your account at the time you make the reservation.

In some cases, the merchant may process a separate pre-authorized transaction (which may exceed the amount of your original purchase) to ensure you have sufficient funds in your account. The total amount of the purchase is processed at the time of your order and refunds of the pre-authorized transaction amount will occur later when the item is delivered to/received by you.

Frequently asked questions

1. How can I protect myself against fraudulent transactions?

To protect yourself, you must monitor your account(s) for unauthorized use and comply with your obligations in your CIBC Cardholder Banking Service Agreement. It is important to safeguard your card, your card details (such as your card number), and your PIN at all times from misuse, damage or destruction. Never lend your card or disclose your PIN to anyone.

The CIBC Advantage Debit Card can be used to make purchases either with or without a PIN or the card being present, so treat your card as though it were cash and only give your card details when you initiate a purchase with a trusted retailer.

Should you notice suspicious activity on your account, discover your card to be lost, stolen or misused, or suspect that someone knows your PIN or card details, contact us immediately at 1 800 465-CIBC (2422).

2. My debit card has an expiry date. What happens when my card expires?

Before your CIBC Debit Card expires, a replacement card will be sent to you provided you activated your card at least 3 months prior to the expiry date and your account(s) is (are) open and in good standing. If you have a CIBC Advantage Debit Card and have used it to set up any pre-authorized payments, it will be important to contact those companies with whom you have pre-authorized transaction arrangements to notify them of the change to your card details.

If you have not activated your card prior to the expiry date, a replacement card will not be sent to you. Expired debit cards cannot be used to conduct POS or ATM transactions. To request a replacement card with a new expiry date, visit any CIBC Banking Centre or call CIBC Telephone Banking.

3. The CIBC Advantage Debit Card has a Visa logo on it. Does this mean it is a Visa Credit Card?

No. The CIBC Advantage Debit Card is a debit card, not a credit card. This debit card has a Visa logo and the word Debit on the front because the card provides you with extended access to your account(s) to shop outside Canada, online, by phone or by mail through the Visa network. At stores, in Canada, you can continue to shop through the Interac network. Whether you are shopping worldwide or in Canada, funds will be withdrawn directly from your account.

4. What is the benefit of having access to the Visa network?

Access to the Visa network gives you the ability to make debit purchases online, by phone, by mail and at retail locations in the U.S. and internationally. The purchase amounts will automatically be withdrawn from your account at the time of the purchase.

5. What if a retailer doesn't accept my card because it doesn't have my name embossed on it?

If a retailer doesn't accept your CIBC Advantage Debit Card because your name is not embossed on the front of the card, please call CIBC Telephone Banking at 1 800 465-CIBC (2422) or visit your nearest branch to request a card with your name on it.

6. How will my shopping experience change with the CIBC Advantage Debit Card?

Shopping at retail locations in Canada

Shopping with Interac Debit

Your shopping experience remains the same.

Shopping with Interac Flash

If your CIBC Advantage Debit Card is enabled with Interac Flash, you have the ability to pay for smaller everyday purchases, quickly and securely. You can look for the Interac Flash logo and tap and hold your card in front of the reader. You have an Interac Flash spending limit of $100 per transaction. This limit is subject to change at any time. If you have exceeded your Interac Flash spending limit, or if you have made more than $200 in consecutive Interac Flash purchases, the merchant terminal will prompt you to insert the card and enter a PIN.

Shopping online, by phone or by mail

You can use your CIBC Advantage Debit Card without your PIN to shop online, by phone or by mail. When selecting the method of payment, choose Visa as the card type. In addition to your card number and expiry date, you may be required to provide the three-digit Security Code on the back of your card to complete your purchase. As well, you may be asked for the cardholder name as shown on the front of your card.

7. What if my card doesn't have my name on it?

If you have a CIBC Advantage Debit Card and you make purchases online, by phone or by mail, you may be asked for the cardholder name. If your card does not have your name on the front, then use your legal first and last names. If you frequently make purchases this way and would prefer to have a card with your name on it, please call CIBC Telephone Banking at 1 800 465-CIBC (2422) or visit your nearest branch to request a card with your name on it.

8. What if I try to use my CIBC Advantage Debit Card to make a purchase online, by phone or by mail and the retailer does not accept the card?

The CIBC Advantage Debit Card is accepted online, by phone or by mail at:

- Most U.S. and international retailers that accept Visa cards
- Participating Canadian retailers that accept Visa Debit. If the transaction is declined, it may be because the retailer is not yet accepting Visa Debit.

9. How will my CIBC Advantage Debit Card work outside Canada?

The CIBC Advantage Debit Card is a debit card that you can use around the world to make purchases directly from your account(s). Even though your card is a "debit" card, some payment terminals require merchants to press "credit" or "Visa" to process Visa Debit transactions through the global Visa payment network. In such cases, either you or the merchant may need to select (press) the "credit" or "Visa" button on the terminal pad. Note, the transaction will still be processed like a regular debit transaction and the payment will be debited from your account.

10. Can I use my CIBC Advantage Debit Card to make a reservation for things like a hotel stay or a car rental?

Yes, you may use your CIBC Advantage Debit Card to reserve things like hotels, cars or cruises, although some merchants may advise you to use a credit card to make the reservation instead. This is because the amount you pay to book the reservation upfront or at check-in (i.e., a deposit) may be different from the final purchase amount at the end of your hotel stay or when you return a car. So, you may wish to make the reservation with a credit card until you know what the final payment amount will be, at which time you may use your CIBC Advantage Debit Card to pay for the transaction directly from your account. If you do choose to book the reservation in advance with your CIBC Advantage Debit Card (or provide your card at check-in), please note that the funds will be debited from your bank account at that time and that a transaction fee applicable to your account may apply. If the amount you were charged when making the reservation was more than the final payment due, the merchant should refund the difference. If however, the amount you were charged when making the reservation was less than the final payment due, you will be required to pay the difference.

11. Are there any fees associated with using my card?

There are no annual fees for CIBC Debit Cards. Depending on your account type, transaction fees may apply. Account fees apply when you use your CIBC Debit Card for transactions such as withdrawals at non-CIBC bank machines. Also, for CIBC Advantage Debit Card transactions, account fees apply for purchases outside Canada. An administration fee will apply to transactions made in U.S. or other foreign currency. For details of debit card usage fees, see "Account fees applicable to using your debit card" on page 13.

12. Can I put a stop payment on a pre-authorized debit/recurring payment set up with my CIBC Advantage Debit Card details?

No, you need to contact the merchant/biller/payee directly to instruct them to discontinue applying charges to your account(s) through your CIBC Advantage Debit Card. If you are unsuccessful in resolving the issue, CIBC may be able to work with Visa to request a refund for you.

13. I just received my CIBC Advantage Debit Card – how do I activate Interac Flash on my card?

Interac Flash will be available for use after you activate the feature by performing a PIN transaction in person at a merchant terminal. When the Interac Flash feature is enabled, any replacement CIBC Advantage Debit Card will also have the Interac Flash feature enabled, including the replacement card mailed to you when your current card expires. If you ask to have Interac Flash disabled, any replacement CIBC Advantage Debit Card issued will also have the Interac Flash feature disabled, including the replacement card mailed to you when your current card expires.

14. Can I remove the Interac Flash feature from my CIBC Advantage Debit Card?

The Interac Flash functionality is turned 'ON' by default once you perform a PIN transaction at a merchant terminal with your new card. If you want the functionality turned 'OFF', please call CIBC Telephone Banking at 1 800 465-CIBC (2422) or visit your nearest branch.

Account fees applicable to using your debit card

When you use your CIBC Debit Card for withdrawals and debit purchases, the following fees will apply in addition to the transaction fee (if any) for your type of account:

Withdrawals made at non-CIBC bank machines

- In Canada (Interac network) $2.00 each⁶
- In U.S. (Plus and Visa networks⁶) $3.00 each⁶ plus 2.5% administration fee⁷
- Outside of Canada and U.S. (Plus and Visa networks⁶) $5.00 each⁶ plus 2.5% administration fee⁷

Debit purchases (and returns/credits) made with merchants, and withdrawals made at financial institutions outside Canada with a CIBC Advantage Debit Card

- In U.S. or other foreign currency Additional 2.5% administration fee⁷

An additional surcharge may be applied at some non-CIBC bank machines and will be added directly to the amount of your withdrawal.

Other fees apply to the operation of your account(s) and are described in the Personal Account Service Fees brochure (available at any CIBC branch, by calling 1 800 465-CIBC (2422), or by visiting cibc.com).

⁶ May include other networks we make available for use outside Canada.

We will not hold you liable for amounts withdrawn from your Account in excess of the daily Transaction limits.
- (c) Circumstances Beyond Your Control: You are not responsible for Losses due to circumstances beyond your control if there was nothing that you reasonably could have done to have prevented the Losses. Here are examples of circumstances beyond your control:

6. Transactions with merchants

- (a) If you authorized a Transaction, we are not responsible for any dispute with a merchant and you must settle any dispute or claims directly with the merchant.
- (b) We will not be liable if a merchant does not give you credit for a bill payment, imposes any additional charges, charges a different price for purchases with a Debit Card versus other payment types, will not accept your Debit Card, does not credit your bill payment on the date that funds are withdrawn from your Account or takes any other action.
- (c) If you want to set up pre-authorized payment Transactions with a merchant, you have to make those arrangements directly with the merchant. You are responsible for giving the merchant the required information for any pre-authorized payment Transactions, including telling merchants if your Debit Card Details change.  - ii) Outside of Canada: Where Visa cards are accepted, Transactions are processed through the Visa network (or any other network Visa makes available for use).
 - iii) Card Not Present Transactions: Where Visa Debit is accepted, Transactions are processed through the Visa network.
- (b) Purchases, Refunds and Adjustments: Debits and credits for Transaction(s) may not appear in your Account on or effective the same day as the purchase or return/adjustment.
- (c) Disputes with Merchants for Visa Network Transactions: Despite paragraph 6(a), if you have a dispute with a merchant about a purchase processed through the Visa network and you have been unsuccessful in first resolving the dispute with the merchant, you may contact CIBC. In this case, you must tell us of the dispute within 60 days of the later of the date of purchase and the expected date of delivery. In some circumstances, such as where the merchant has not provided you with the goods or services you purchased or the goods or services are not as described, we may be able to assist you (but not in the case of disputes about quality or suitability, nor can we assist you with PIN-authorized Transactions). If the Transaction is reversed you assign us all the rights you have against the merchant concerning the Transaction.
- (d) Advance Payment Transactions: When you conduct Advance Payment Transactions, including reserving goods and/or services such as hotel reservations or car rentals, the funds will be debited immediately from your Account by the Merchant and the amount may be different from the final purchase amount.

- (e) Authorizing Transactions: For Card Not Present Transactions, some merchants may process an authorizing Transaction (which may exceed the amount of your purchase). This authorizing Transaction will remove the funds from your Account and it will later be reversed. The reversal may occur after the purchase Transaction is processed.
- (f) Interac Flash: If a CIBC Advantage Debit Card is enabled with Interac Flash, CIBC will select and link an Account to your Debit Card. Interac Flash Transactions will default to the pre-selected Account. Interac Flash functionality will be activated by conducting a successful PIN Transaction at a Debit Card reading terminal. You can have Interac Flash disabled or re-enabled by calling CIBC Telephone Banking or by visiting any CIBC branch.
- (g) Restricted Transactions: Your CIBC Advantage Debit Card cannot be used to receive credits for online gambling transactions, wire transfers, money transfers or gains/dividends from investment instruments.

8. Dispute resolution with CIBC

If you have questions or concerns or if you disagree with CIBC about a Transaction, we want to hear from you. You can do this by contacting CIBC Telephone Banking, a CIBC branch, or CIBC Credit Card Services (if applicable). If CIBC Telephone Banking, the branch, or CIBC Credit Card Services is unable to resolve your concern, you can escalate your concern to a senior level within CIBC. CIBC's "Our Service Commitment to You" brochure is available at any CIBC branch, or you may get the full details of CIBC's dispute resolution procedure by calling CIBC Telephone Banking or at cibc.com.

9. Termination of service or this Agreement

You may cancel your use of the Cardholder Banking Services at any time by notifying CIBC. In addition, we may terminate this Agreement or withdraw or cancel any part of the Cardholder Banking Service or your ability to access it at any time and without notice to you. We will have no liability for any loss or inconvenience which may result. If this Agreement is terminated or the Cardholder Banking Services are canceled, you must still fulfill all your obligations under this Agreement and immediately destroy or return your Debit Card(s). All Debit Cards remain the property of CIBC.

10. Additional Debit Card services

We may make additional services or benefits available, which are subject to additional terms and conditions which may be changed or terminated at any time without notice. We are not liable for any services or benefits supplied by third parties. You must deal directly with the supplier of services or benefits regarding any dispute.

11. Instructions and records

You direct CIBC to accept the instructions you give through the Cardholder Banking Services. CIBC's records are conclusive and binding on you, and will be admissible in any legal proceeding as the best evidence of Transactions. All Transactions are subject to verification, acceptance and adjustment by CIBC.

12. Foreign currency transactions

- (a) If you withdraw foreign currency from or deposit foreign currency into your Canadian dollar Account through a CIBC Bank Machine, CIBC will debit or credit your Account in Canadian funds at the exchange rate set by CIBC. If you deposit non U.S. currency into a U.S. dollar Account, CIBC will credit your Account in U.S. funds at the exchange rate set by CIBC. Exchange rates will be set by CIBC on a date determined by CIBC, which may be different from the date you made the withdrawal or deposit.

- (b) If you use a Debit Card for a Transaction outside Canada or to withdraw foreign currency from a non-CIBC Bank Machine, we will convert the amounts to Canadian dollars at our exchange rate, which is the rate CIBC is required to pay on the date of conversion, plus an administration fee. Currency conversion may not happen on the date of your withdrawal or Transaction and the conversion rate applied to refunds or adjustments may be different from the conversion rate applied to an original Transaction. The administration fee will apply to refunds or adjustments.
- (c) If you are outside Canada and choose at a Bank Machine or a point of sale to pay for a Transaction in Canadian funds at a specified exchange rate when prompted, that Transaction will be processed by CIBC following the instructions received and the foreign exchange rate may be different than that set out above.

13. Service fees

You will pay CIBC's fees for Transactions, for the Debit Card and for using Cardholder Banking Services, and you authorize us to debit the fees from your Account(s). You will also pay any transaction charges or service fees imposed by other financial institutions or service providers for Transactions you conduct through their Bank Machines or terminals. Fees are not refundable. CIBC's current personal account fee list is available at any time by calling CIBC Telephone Banking, from any CIBC branch or at cibc.com.

14. Changes to this Agreement

We may propose to change, either permanently or temporarily, any term of this Agreement (including fees, charges or other amounts required to be paid by you, and/or Debit Card features) or replace this Agreement with another agreement, at any time. We will give you written notice of a proposed change and any other information required by law, at least 30 days before the change is stated to come into effect in the notice. We may provide that notice electronically, or by posting a notice in CIBC branches, or by posting a notice on the website listed on the back of your Debit Card or by mail. If by mail, then we will use the most recent mailing address you provided to us. You may refuse the change by terminating this Agreement and closing your Debit Card without cost, penalty or cancellation indemnity by notifying us within 30 days of the effective date of the change.

15. Limitation of CIBC's liability

You understand and agree that, except as expressly provided in paragraph 3(c) above, and in addition to those limitations of liability set out elsewhere in this Agreement, CIBC will be liable to you only for direct damages resulting from gross negligence, fraud or willful misconduct of CIBC arising directly from the performance by CIBC of its obligations under this Agreement and CIBC will not be liable to you for any other direct damages. CIBC will not under any circumstances be liable to you for any other damages, including, without limitation, indirect, incidental, special, punitive or consequential losses or damages, loss of profits, loss of revenue, loss of business opportunities, inconvenience, or any other foreseeable or unforeseeable loss resulting directly or indirectly out of this Agreement or the services provided to you, including inability to access any Cardholder Banking Service, even if CIBC was advised of the possibility of damages or was negligent. These limitations apply to any act or omission of CIBC, its affiliates, agents or suppliers, whether or not the act or omission would otherwise give rise to a cause of action in contract, tort, statute or any other doctrine of law. Gross negligence in this paragraph means conduct (whether through action or inaction, or through words or silence) which is (i) a marked and flagrant departure from the conduct ordinarily expected of a reasonable and prudent person in the position of CIBC, or (ii) so wanton and reckless as to constitute an utter disregard for harmful, foreseeable and avoidable consequences. This paragraph will survive any termination of this Agreement.
