

Consent to Electronic Delivery of Documents (Credit Cards)

Last updated: May 2016

You consent to receive your monthly statements, other disclosure documents, notices of any changes to your CIBC Cardholder Agreement, including changes to any interest rate, fee or charge, and any other documents we are required by the Bank Act or other regulation to provide in writing, by electronic means through CIBC Online Banking, which can be accessed at www.cibc.com.

Message Centre notifications are accessible for 13 calendar months after they are posted, unless you delete them. eStatements are accessible for 7 years after they are posted in CIBC Online Banking. You are responsible for retaining a copy of these electronic documents.

Your consent takes effect immediately, but you may continue to receive paper documents by mail for some time.

You may cancel this consent at any time by visiting CIBC Online Banking or a CIBC branch or by calling 1 800 465-4653.
