▣ Canada Goes to War

War is declared. All of Canada is mobilized over the course of the war, both in military campaigns and on the home front.

▣ Roads to Victory

The main Canadian campaigns in Europe leading to VE Day.

▣ Some Came Back, Others Did Not

Personal stories of Canadians who lived during this period.

▣ "They Walk with You" (12 min. film)

Immersion in the Canadian experience on D-Day and during the Battle of Normandy.

▣ Canada Today

A modern and dynamic country: learn about Canadian culture, diversity and its actions.

TOURS OF JUNO PARK AND BUNKERS

A guided visit with a bilingual Canadian guide.

Discover the story of the D-Day landings as you walk on the beach along the remains of the Atlantic Wall. The visit includes the bunkers in front of the Juno Beach Centre and the tunnels leading to a German command post on site in 1944.

TEMPORARY EXHIBITION COMING MARCH 2019

Great WOMEN During the War

1939–1945

During the Second World War, women experienced anguish, fear, worry, mourning, as well as hope. They contributed to the war effort, worked, mobilized their energy and their skills to seize new opportunities, and successfully fulfilled new responsibilities, often receiving little recognition in return. They paved the way for profound social change. This exhibition pays tribute to some of these women, Canadian and European, in recognition of their bravery and their humility.

CANADIAN WAR MUSEUM
MUSÉE CANADIEN DE LA GUERRE

An exhibition developed by the Canadian War Museum, in partnership with the Juno Beach Centre.

EDUCATIONAL ACTIVITIES

Beginning in February 2019, a new, redesigned youth circuit and a new educational activity led by a Canadian guide with the “Explore Juno as a Class” digital app on tactile tablets (two versions for primary and secondary school groups).

In the permanent exhibit, new, interactive modules and the “Explore Juno as a Class” digital app will enable primary and secondary school groups and their teachers to discover the museum with a Canadian guide.

The class is divided into 6 teams of 5 students, each team with their own tablet. Across the different exhibit rooms, students are invited to learn about the role that may have been theirs during the Second World War, and to reflect on universal historical concepts tied to themes of immigration, total war or political dictators.

At the end of the exhibit, with their guide/mediator, students will tally the “poppy points” earned throughout the activity on a common screen and share what they have learned with the other teams, before concluding with a discussion about current topics related to Canada and the world today.

“This is my first time here. I often don’t like museums that deal with war but for once, I loved it!” Titi, age 14.
