

INFORMATION FOR CANDIDATES SEEKING APPOINTMENT TO EDITORIAL BOARD OF CANADIAN JOURNAL OF INFECTION CONTROL

The Canadian Journal of Infection Control (CJIC) is seeking two candidates to complete the current CJIC Editorial Board. The responsibility of the Editorial Board is to critique submitted articles and return the evaluation to the Clinical Editor within the established time lines. There are usually four journal issues per year. It is anticipated that each Editorial Board member may review up to four submissions per year.

The term of the Editorial Board is five years. The two new candidates will have terms expiring December 31, 2018. A selection committee comprised of the Clinical Editor, IPAC Canada President, and one other IPAC Canada Board member will review each candidate's application using the IPAC Canada Scoring Tool for the Editorial Board of CJIC (IPAC Policy Form 19). It is suggested that candidates review the policy before submitting their application. The appointment of candidates for CJIC Editorial Board is to be ratified by the Board of Directors. A Conflict of Interest Form must be signed by each successful candidate.

Qualifications:

Applicants must possess the following qualifications and agree to the following terms:

- Must be a current (2014) member of IPAC Canada, having held membership for at least 5 years;
- Certification in Infection Control & Epidemiology (CIC) is preferred; or specialty training in epidemiology, infectious diseases or community medicine;
- Must have a minimum of 5 years experience in Infection Prevention and Control and/or Infectious Diseases;
- Must have demonstrated strong organization and communication skills;
- Must have the time, personal commitment and support of their institution to serve IPAC Canada through this position.

APPLICATION MUST INCLUDE:

- A letter from applicant demonstrating suitability for the position.
- A resume that includes details as to the candidate's background in Infection Prevention and Control/Infectious Diseases

Applications must be received no later than February 14, 2014

Applications should be forwarded to:
