In consideration of access to the document certification services of the Chamber, the receipt and sufficiency of which is acknowledged, the Company agrees to the following terms and conditions:

1. The information contained in all declarations, certificates of origin and all other documents provided by the Company to the Chamber for purposes of document certification is true, valid and accurate, and will be upheld by the Company.
2. Full responsibility is also hereby accepted by the Company for any errors or inaccuracies in such declarations and/or documents pertaining thereto, and the Company agrees to indemnify and save harmless the Chamber, its directors, officers, employees and agents from all claims, actions, and costs arising out of such declarations and/or documents pertaining thereto.
3. The Chamber may refuse to certify documents of the Company (including its parent or subsidiary companies) without prior notice to the Company for any reason including the receipt of a complaint or information that the Company may have directly, or through an agent, sworn a false declaration, shipped goods inconsistent with its documentation and/or sworn declaration(s) or engaged in conduct contrary to law, the Company expressly waives any right to pursue a claim of action against the Chamber, its directors, officers, employees, and agents for any damages arising from or relating to such refusal of service or any delay in providing documentation certification or related services. The Chamber may, at its discretion, reinstate documentation certification services to the Company where it is satisfied that any outstanding issues or disputes have been fully and satisfactorily resolved, but is under no obligation to do so.
4. Please include copies of your company's articles of incorporation.
